DEDICATED TO OUR FIGHTING MEN AND THEIR CAUSE

Memories of a Soldier
Memories of a soldier will never die;
Blasts of the guns, the shouts and the cries.
Ships on the sea, and men on the field;
Not one soldier, ever to yield.
And to the men of the foe;
Thoughts of love they never know.
Kill or be killed on their mind;
Seldom thoughts of being kind.
Into the night, do they sleep?
Memories of home, their minds to reap.
The break of dawn, they do awake,
Asking for peace for heavens sake?
A useless cry, no one will hear;
Only the thoughts so far and near.
Minds on nothing, but victory;
Looking in the eyes, of the enemy.
Thoughts of Father, and of Mother;
Laying low, thinking of each other.
Fighting for the red, white, and blue;
Thinking of your country, not only you.
Ones at home, shouts of protest;
While soldiers abroad, doing their best.
Soldiers away, doing their best and losing their lives;
And cries of loneliness, from children and wives.
Only he will know, what they endure;
When he looks back; his memories of a soldier.

Mr. Smith, Superintendent

ADMINISTRATORS

Mr. Smith, the superintendent, handles the affairs of the entire school. Duties such as meetings and reports take up much of his time.

As principal of Cambridge High School, Mr. Buhlig takes care of all of the high school administrative duties and problems, a big job.

Mr. Buhlig, Principal

School Board: Mr. DeDecker, Mr. Sears, Mr. Sherrard, Mr. Boelens, Mr. Smith, Mr. Gustafson, Mr. Arndt, Mr. Stackhouse.

The Cambridge Board of Education takes a leading role in determining school policy. It supervises the selection and hiring of new teachers and other school employees. Calculating their salaries is another responsibility. Together with the preceding duties, the school board decides the action to be taken concerning financial matters, extra curricular activities, and rules within the school.

The secretaries at Cambridge High School give much assistance to the administration, the faculty, and the student body. Their duties involve typing, answering telephones, and distributing information.

Secretaries: Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. Burgeson, Mrs. Gillespie.

AFS

Dear Friends,

My year as a senior at C.H.S. is going to end pretty soon. As I look back on this year, I've experienced many things in school, home, and other places. I have enjoyed joining in student body activities, especially Student Council. I was very fortunate to be a part of this organization and to see it at work. All of the C.H.S. spirit, excitement, and enthusiasm during ball games will also remain in me. What a pleasant feeling I've had to exchange "Hi!" with you! I'll always remember your cordial greeting and the smiles on your faces.

Thank you so much for making this year possible and giving me lots of support, friendship, and an opportunity for understanding. I'm going to share this year's significant experiences with my family and friends in Japan. Good luck in your futures, and I hope some day we may meet and talk together again. Thank you.

Love
Kazuko

Cambridge High School has four bands: the marching band, the pep band, the concert band, and the stage band. The marching band, under the direction of Carolyn Sheesley, head majorette, performs at all of the home football games. Besides practicing on cold, wet mornings, all members are required to attend night rehearsals. This year the marching band made its annual trip to Northwestern University for Band Day. Although the bus ride seemed to take forever, everyone agreed that the trip was a great deal of fun.

The main purpose of the C.H.S. pep band is to play for pep sessions, as well as for all home basketball games. They play pop hits, marches, and some "oldies, but goodies" for the adults.

This year the concert band, under the direction of Mr. Burrus, again presented its "Pops" Concert. Show tunes and some of the latest hit songs were played. The concert also had an added attraction. Mr. Burrus and Mr. Place provided a photo rhythm color organ, which added brilliant color to the gym. The band also worked hard for the State Music Contest where they received an "excellent" rating. Another big event was the Spring Concert.

The stage band, known as the "Blue Notes," performed at the concerts and for special groups such as the P.T.A.

Sixty members of mixed chorus under the direction of Mrs. Adelle Bayless participated in many varied activities during 1969-1970. In October, Richard Charlet, Debra DeKezel, and Kazuko Shinya were auditioned at Wethersfield and later selected to represent our school in the District II Music Educators' Festival at Loves Park, Illinois. Following our Christmas Concert, preparations for state music competition festival began which resulted in excellent ratings for girls chorus, mixed chorus, two girls' double ensembles, and a boys' single ensemble. The Cornbelt Conference Choral Festival was held at Westmer High on May 5 with fifty-five of our members singing in a 300 voice chorus which presented an evening's program of ten memorized choral selections. Claude Powell of the University of Iowa was the conductor. The annual Spring Band and Choral Concert was held in the gym on May 13. During the year groups from mixed chorus presented programs and sang for the American Legion, various women's organizations, World Day of Prayer, Holy Week Services, the Fike Memorial Service, and for Baccalaureate and Commencement.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America is an organization dedicated to helping students who are planning a future in agriculture. Under the direction of Mr. Wohrley, the members are advised in such projects as home improvements and raising livestock. The members are also encouraged to develop qualities of leadership.

The members participate in many contests throughout the state including Public Speaking, Parliamentary Procedure, Farm Mechanics, and Livestock Judging. Other activities include co-sponsorship of the Sweetheart Ball and a semester dance. The Cambridge FFA chapter also sends delegates to the State and National Conventions. It participates in community projects such as parking cars for football and basketball games. The FFA also participates in the Occupational Experience Program in which the students attend class for part of the day and get on-the-job training for the remainder of the day.

"Toward New Horizons" is the motto followed by the Future Homemakers of America. This organization is one that tries to prepare girls for the role of the modern homemaker. Its main goal is to learn to live better today so that students' lives may be better tomorrow.

During the year the F.H.A. carried on many activities; such as, a Bake sale, a sock hop, Daddy Date Night, Work day, the Sadie Hawkins Dance, and the Mother-Daughter Banquet. Another one of these was co-sponsoring the February Sweetheart Ball. F.H.A. girls also worked hard to receive the points needed to take a trip to Chicago in the spring.

This organization was sponsored by Mrs. Susan Woitel. The other officers were as follows: Arlys Fickling, president; Kathy Anderson, vice-president; Nancy Lance, 2nd vice-president; Kathy Stahl, secretary; and Cindy Schumaker, treasurer.

VARSITY CLUB

Varsity Club is an organization of students who have won a major letter in any sport. Varsity cheerleaders are also honorary members. The Varsity Club annually sponsors a Varsity-Faculty basketball game in which the seniors in the club challenge the faculty members. As another money-making project, the club has a barbecue supper. Proceeds this year went toward the Roger Fike Memorial Fund and to help buy needed supplies for school sports.

FTA

Future Teachers of America is an organization open to those wishing to enter or investigate the teaching profession. It was sponsored this year by Mrs. Patricia McGill. Bob Schumaker presided over the club; Ellen Nelson acted as secretary; and Connie Cross, as treasurer.

Again this year F.T.A. sponsored a teachers' tea. The club also presented a Christmas party for its members at the December meeting.

The Viking Staff is composed of students who are interested in creating our school yearbook. Although much of the work is long and tedious, the finished product showed that all of our time was well spent.

Many new things were added to the annual this year. Some of these new innovations were the different cover, additional color pages, and the special effects on the divisional pages.

This year's "Staff" consisted of Co-editors Ann Penstone and Marty Crapnell; Marcia Robertson, Copy Editor; Ron Anderson, Business Manager; Greg Johnson, Dave Sherrard, Mark Craig, and Dick Lindburg, photographers. Out typists were Bonnie Keeney, Marcy VanDyke, Geraldine Moore, and Connie Cross.

Our year was made easier by our wonderful sponsor, Miss Carlson. The entire staff enjoyed her immensely. The good times we had with her will never be forgotten.

Tri-C is a club for students interested in promoting traffic safety in the community. In order to help complete its projects, the club often enlists the aid of the auto dealers, town officials, and law enforcement agencies.

This year the club planned to have a Car Safety Check in the fall, but due to circumstances beyond the club's control, the Safety Check was cancelled. In the fall, two club members went to the Regional Youth Traffic Safety Conference in Macomb; and in April, a small delegation of the club went to the State Youth Traffic Safety Conference in Springfield.

The Future Nurses of America is an organization for those interested in a nursing career. It had many medically oriented activities this year. The club went on a field trip to Peoria and visited St. Lukes Hospital and the Methodist Hospital while there. This gave the members a chance to take a closer look at the inside workings of a hospital. During the year they also tried to have a speaker from the medical field speak at every meeting. In May the club held a Mother-Daughter supper.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts Club of Cambridge High School is the newest club in the school; it was started this year. To gain membership into this club, a person must be an Industrial Arts student. The club's main objective is to do things that will improve the community. This year it started by building trash barrels for the football field. The old grade school grounds were cleaned up, and the new fire engine was waxed also. In the future the members plan to greatly increase their activities. One of the planned activities is repairing and painting the playground equipment at the old grade school. The club also plans to wax the fire engine every year as an annual project.

The main objective of the Pep Club is to promote team spirit and good sportsmanship. This is something that is constantly popular; there is always a loyal cheering section supporting the team at their games. Through all of the ups and downs of the football and basketball seasons, the students let the boys know that they were behind them all of the way.

This year the Pep Club added a moneymaking project to its list of activities. It sold colorful paper flowers made by the Home Ec girls. These "spirit flowers" lent a cheerful and bright atmosphere to the halls of C.H.S.

SPANISH CLUB

S. Crosiar, V-Pres., B. Kenney, Pres., L. Gustafson, Sec.

The main purpose of the Spanish Club is to promote interest in Spanish countries and their respective customs. This can be done by guest speakers, films, slides, and special Spanish dinners. In the past the Spanish Club has been involved in many activities. This year was no exception. Among its other activities, the club was involved in sponsoring a sock hop during the basketball season.

Anyone who has had a Spanish course in high school is eligible to join this organization. It was sponsored again this year by Mrs. Decker. The Spanish Club is looking forward to promoting Hispanic interests for many years to come.

LIBRARY

CLUB

Library Club Officers: A. Penstone Pres., L. Gustafson vice-president, D. Clifford Sec.-Treas., P. Naslund Sec. Officer.

The Library Club is a large and very important organization at C.H.S. It not only provides an assortment of pleasurable reading material, but also is referred to as a source for research data.

The Library Club is headed by Miss Kauffman, our school librarian, and consists of some forty members. Members of the club take care of tasks such as bulletin board duty, typing, shelving books, charge desk duty, and checking the reference room. Silver pins are awarded to members for working a set number of hours in these library and library oriented activities.

FRONT ROW: Advisor Mrs. Hulslander, M. Leander. BACK ROW: J. Smith, S. Crosiar, A. Gorden, R. Angus, C. Fransene, B. Keeney.

MAROON AND WHITE

Although the Maroon and White is not an organized club, it makes an important contribution to life at C.H.S. The members write a bi-monthly report for the Cambridge Chronicle. These writing duties are divided among the following: Mark Leander, Senior News; Bonnie Keeney, Junior News; Joyce Smith, Sophomore News; Carla Hedbloom, Freshman News; Arlan Gorden, Roving Reporter; Sally Crosiar, Senior Spotlight; and Bob Angus, Potpourri. The sponsor, Mrs. Hulslander, has the job of trying to unravel and correct the writing. In this way Maroon and White tries to present a true and complete picture of life at C.H.S.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the supervision and leadership of the sponsors, Carl Goff and Don Mungerson, and of president Arlys Fickling, the Student Council has organized many activities for the student body this year. Some of the activities held were sock hops, the sponsoring of Homecoming activities, and a freshman orientation. For a money making project for school improvements, the Student Council held a "pig raffle." It was also decided that the Council should have closer contact with the students. So, a suggestion box was placed in the office for their use. Each suggestion submitted was to be thoroughly discussed before any action would be taken.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

M. Crapnell, Pres., R. Lindburg, V.P., A. Naslund, Sec.

The National Honor Society is an organization of honor students. It is sponsored by Mr. Buhlig, Mr. Bredthauer, and Mr. Nordstrom. Students may become members of the organization the second semester of their sophomore year. Qualifications for admission include an academic average of 88 and the qualities of leadership, service, and character.

The main activity sponsored by the Honor Society is the annual Christmas Dance. Each year the Men's Club of Cambridge recognizes these students at a spring luncheon held in their honor.

The Girls' Athletic Association at Cambridge gives the girls a chance to learn various sports and skills outside the regular physical education classes. Under the supervision of Miss Carlson, we have enjoyed several activities including: field hockey, soccer, bowling, volleyball, school and class basketball tournaments, and softball. We also enjoyed a night of swimming at the Kewanee YMCA. Through her participation in each activity, each girl tries to accumulate enough points to earn a letter. This year we also sponsored a sock-hop and a bake sale.

The Homecoming activities were a complete success this year except for the fact that Cambridge lost to Atkinson. This 38 to 17 defeat subdued the spirit at the dance a little, but did nothing to dampen the pre-game activities. On the Thursday before the game, the annual snake dance and bonfire took place with all of their normal enthusiasm. The announcement of the King and Queen was the highlight of this celebration. Roselyn Stach and Lyman Miller were chosen as the reigning royalty. Their attendants were Marty Crapnell and Arlys Fickling, Ron Anderson and Ann Penstone, Bob Angus and Carolyn Sheesley, and Kurt Horberg and Doris Wahlheim. A pep assembly and a parade during the following days concluded the pre-game preparation. The senior class skunk took honors for the best float; the sophomores got second with "Can those Tigers." The dance following the game included a lot of music and dancing and a talk by Coach Goff. The coronation of Lyman and Roselyn as King and Queen concluded the night.

ASSEMBLIES

On the whole this has been a good year for assemblies at Cambridge. Although these programs offer a welcome relief from some classes, they also can be fun and informative. Among the various speakers this year were a talented sculptress, an undercover narcotics agent, and a representative from an insurance company, who certainly came on with a "bang." These and other assembly programs were enjoyed and appreciated by the student body.

Along came February bring Valentine's Day and another dance. On February 14, 1970, the annual Sweetheart Ball, sponsored by the F.F.A. and F.H.A., was held.

This year the theme was "Cupid's Capers". Couples danced under a beautiful red heart, to the music of the Next To None band. The high light of the evening was the crowning of Sweetheart and Heartthrob, Mary Ann Boelens and Tom Owens. The other members of the court were Jim Rushing and Connie Hier, Duke and Duchess; John Lund and Debbie Grant, Prince and Princess; Roger Scott and Glenna Arndt; Scott Fickling and Carol Anderson.

SWEETHEART BALL 1970

Carnival this year was great success. Everyone worked hard to make it the best carnival ever. The seniors won the carnival for the fourth consecutive year. This entitled their candidates, Kurt Horberg and Nanci Lance, to reign as Carnival King and Queen. Their attendants were Kathy Brodd and Gary Hancock, freshmen; Cynthia Sears and Norman Robinson, sophomores; and Lynn Nimrick and Bob Lindburg, juniors.

MOM MUSICAL ORGANIZATION

The Christmas Dance served to start our spirits rising toward a great holiday spirit. It was one of our best ever. Under the supervision of Mr. Nordstrom and Mr. Buhlig, our few available decorations nevertheless were very effective. Covered with snow, the big pine tree in the center was the highlight of the decorations. Our spirits continued to soar as we listened and danced to the great band, the MOM. National Honor Society considered the night a great success.

CLASS PLAY

This year's play was entitled "Headin' for a Weddin'". It concerned a hillbilly family, the Hollowbones, and their son, Homer. Homer has been writing letters to a Rhode Island debutante, Melissa Dugan. In his letters, he has led Melissa to believe that he is wealthy and lives in a big mansion; in other words, he has exaggerated. Homer's dreams are shattered as Melissa suddenly appears on the scene after being lost in a blizzard. The rest of the play is taken up in many hilarious scenes as Homer tries to keep his real identity from Melissa, for fear that she will laugh at him.

Everyone worked very hard to make the play the uproaring success it was. The Juniors earned a great deal of money, which went towards financing the Prom.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

After weeks of careful planning and preparation, the Junior-Senior Prom finally became a reality on the evening of May 9. The festivities began with a banquet and program in the school cafeteria. Toastmistress Jannie Yarger introduced the program, and John Melvin read the class prophecy.

The dance, with the theme of a "Midsummer's Night", then began. Music was provided by the magnificent "Next to None" band. The high point of the evening came when Greg Johnson and Kathy Stahl were crowned king and queen of the dance.

Next, everyone adjourned to the bowling alley to watch "100 Rifles" and to bowl until the morning hours.

HONORS ASSEMBLY

Science Award

The Honors Assembly was initiated by the installation of new officers. A speech was given by president Arlys Fickling which concluded the student council portion of the assembly. Next was the presentation of the major scholastic awards. Marcia Robertson received the Karen Wielert English Award; Marty Crapnell, the Raymond Johnson Math Award; and the Michael Anderson Science Award went to Dick Lindburg. Many trophies were given to persons achieving certain goals in girls athletics and boys athletics. Ann Penstone received the G.A.A. Achievement Award and Paul Hultgren received the Roger Fike Memorial Award. Golf members were given their letters as were track members. Agricultural awards were given out and the band and chorus awards also. The seniors will remember this Honors Assembly as it was the last time the school was all together.

Through four years of high school a student learns and grows more than he realizes. He becomes more mature, more knowledgeable, and more aware of his surroundings. It is through this time of education that he becomes an adult. This is his preparation and graduation his first victory. Though we have now crossed that goal it is really only the very first we shall cross or aim for during our lifetimes. It isn't an end. It is a time to look back at all the things we have done in those years, but most of all a time to plan for a future that we think has had a pretty good foundation from Cambridge High School.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Even though the Viking football squad had some bad moments on the field this year, they always played to win. After playing well during the first two games, the team had the breaks turn against them. But, no matter who won the games, the Vikings kept up their high spirits and their team morale.

Co-captains for the season were seniors Bob Angus, Ron Anderson, and Kurt Horberg.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Henry doesn't shove, does he?!!

Since the Vikings finished the Cornbelt Conference season with a tie for second place, everyone around C.H.S. was very proud of the squad. This year they won the Cornbelt Conference Tournament and took third place in the Cambridge Holiday Tournament. Led by Dick Lindburg and Leonard Boelens, the team captains, the Vikings also won the District Tournament in Alwood. They later advanced to the Regionals but were defeated by Galva after winning their first game.

Because of the fine showing by this year's juniors and sophomores, Coach Arcand can plan to have another top team for the 1970-1971 basketball season.

The Fresh-Soph basketball team had an excellent season this year. A balanced offensive and defensive approach enabled them to win every game but one; this record entitled them to keep the "Little Ear of Corn" out of circulation the entire 1969-1970 season. This great achievement made Coach Devinney very proud of the whole squad. Although the Sophomores carried the greater part of the playing duties, the Freshmen also show great promise. Although he is losing some of his best players, including co-captains Paul Hultgren and Jim W Ehrley, Mr. Devinney is confident of coaching a winning team again next year.

TRACK 1970

Although the high school track team was few in number, they had a full schedule for the 1970 season. The team participated in such major meets, as the Davenport Relays, the Clinton Gateway Classic, and the Rock Island District Meet, along with many smaller meets. The Fresh-Soph team placed third in the Fresh-Soph Conference meet. In that meet John Lund set a new conference record of 20.9 seconds in the 180 yard low hurdles. The Varsity team placed fifth in the Cornbelt Conference Track Meet.

Two new varsity school records were set this year. Roger Scott broke his own long jump record with a leap of 21' 4 1/2". He also set a new record in the 180 yard low hurdles with a time of 20.4 seconds.

GOLF

The C.H.S. Golf Team had a very successful season since they lost only two matches. The Cambridge "Swingers" beat the Orion Chargers once, and then lost the return match on a dreary, wet day. We were more successful against Wethersfield, however. The Vikings beat the Flying Geese twice in two matches. Riverdale defeated us once, but we struck back in the next encounter.

Mark Leander played first position and carded a one over par, 37, for the low score of the year. Sophomore John Lange was named the most consistent golfer of the team. With several promising underclassmen, the Vikings are looking forward to many more successful seasons.

FRESHMEN

Is this my right foot?

The beginning of the 1969-1970 school year was fun for the freshmen. It all began with the Freshman Orientation, presented by the Student Council. The knowledge gained there really helped us to find our classes on the first day of school.

The next events on the calendar were Homecoming and Carnival. We made a Homecoming float, which represented many hours of hard work and play. We also prepared for Carnival and elected Kathy Brodd and Gary Hancock as our candidates.

Our first year at C.H.S. was interesting and exciting; we are now looking forward to our sophomore year.

Industrious Sophomore meeting?

Smile !

Wake up, Becky !

Hi, uh, Mr. Buhlig.

Now we sophomores are half-way through high school. As we review this year, we can see that it has really been fun. Our first big project was building a Homecoming float, which received second place in the balloting.

Next, two money making projects, a workday and a supper, were held for the Carnival. Even though we worked especially hard this year, we did not succeed in getting our candidates, Cynthia Sears and Norman Robinson, crowned at the Carnival.

We fared better at the Sweetheart Ball. Our candidates, John Lund, Debra Grant, were crowned Prince and Princess. Our Fresh-Soph Hop, "The Shack Plus", was also a big success.

This has been another great year for sports with our team winning four of eight games in football. In basketball we did even better since our team won all of its conference games to take the conference crown for the second consecutive year.

At the end of the year, we sophomores ordered our class rings. This will really give us something worth looking forward to.

As usual the Juniors were the busiest class this year. As the '69-'70 school year began, the first thing the class of '71 did was to order our class rings. While waiting for our rings, we Juniors made plans for our Homecoming float. Although it finished a dismal fourth, we didn't let that get us down. Next we had a workday and a chili supper for Carnival. We worked very hard for our candidates, Lynne Nimrick and Bob Lindburg, but once again we came in last. Despite all these past disasters we began to plan for our class play. We chose the play "Headin' for a Weddin'", and believe it or not, it was one of the best plays in CHS history! With this big obstacle behind us, we forged on to Prom. We chose the theme "A Midsummer Night" and although we had the usual last minute crises, it turned out to be one of the best proms, ever! With this exhausting year behind us, we eagerly face the prospect of being Seniors next year, FINALLY!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Now that we're almost done it is easier to think more kindly of all the work done on this year's annual and also that which wasn't done such as: those pictures that weren't printed in time or didn't come out, all those deadlines we didn't meet, and all the layouts that would not work out right. It really was fun, though, since we had such dedicated help in Mrs. Ruth Ann Carlson Lundblad, our advisor, who went through all our problems with us; Mr. William Schultz who took our pictures and also retakes; Mr. Michael Gardner, our American Yearbook advisor, who helped us in so many ways; and also our staff who put in so many long hours to help us get the VIKING in on time. To all these people we extend a big thank you for their patience, skills, knowledge, and hard work.
