Student Life:

No One is the Same,
Stand Out!

"The mind is like a parachute it won't work unless it's open."

"When it comes down to it, I let them think what they want. If they care enough to bother me with what I do, then I'm already better than them".
-Marilyn Monroe

Alexa Anderson

Shelby Becht

1. Start Immediately
2. Do it flamboyantly
3. No exceptions

"Happiness is when what you think, what you say, and what you do are in harmony. So always remember to live life to the fullest and enjoy every minute of it."

Katelynn Berthoud

Danielle Brooks

"Be who you are and say what you feel because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind."
-Dr. Seuss

"Everyone has a past, It's just if people wanna see into theirs."

Patty Brown

Glen Byrne

"it doesn't matter where you go in life, what you do or how much you have. It's who you have beside you."

-Unknown

Kylie Carey

"I'd rather live one day as a lion, than a hundred years as a sheep."

-Unknown

Dakota DeKezel

"You miss 100% of the shots you don't take."

Isabella Frisk

"what's money? A man is a success if he gets up in the morning and goes to bed at night and in between does what we wants to do."

-Bob Dylan

Mary Hammer

Good-Bye

As I get ready to leave Cambridge High School, I think about all the memories I have made and all the friends I will miss. I hope to stay in touch with most of you, and wish all of my classmates the best of luck in their future. I want to thank all of my teachers for helping my classmates and I prepare for our future. A huge shout out to all the staff at Cambridge High School for providing the students with whatever we needed. Mrs. Anderson deserves the biggest thank you of all for helping me edit all the pages of the yearbook and giving me the best advice on what to do for each page to make the book one of the best books.

To the underclassmen, always stay focused on school and don't let the little things get to you. High school is fun and try your best while you are here, but work and look forward to the rest of your life. Thank you yearbook staff for getting ads to help sponsor the book, and helping me create some great pages. Stay in yearbook so you can make just an awesome book for your senior year. Make sure you attend the workshops for the yearbook. Every year our yearbook representative Jim Straub will have something bigger and better for you and for the yearbook that you are designing.

Love, Yearbook Editor
Brooklyn Wexell

Next time you're stressed:
Take a step back, inhale and laugh.
Remember who you are and why you're here.
You're never given anything in this world
that you can't handle.
Be strong, be flexible, love yourself, and love others.
Always remember, just keep moving forward.

Future

Bella Frisk delivers one of the honor address during graduation. She talked about their future and Mr. Weichmann's lecture to the class on the last day of school about the cost of living.

Molly Jo Smith arrives at the school from the state track meet two minutes before the start of graduation. Mr. Akers tries to assist in getting her ready.

Brandon Nelson, Glen Bryne, Chris Shreeves, George Reinstadtler, and Owen Thompson take a minute to look under the hood of Glen's car before the ceremony.

Mrs. Anderson stands with Wyatt Obermeier and Alexa Anderson outside after graduation.

Jamie Franck and Caleb Sipp are all smiles as they head to their next class.

Dedication

Angela Shreeves

When someone we love passes away,
We ache, but we go on;
Our dear departed would want us to heal,
After they are gone.

Grief is a normal way to mend
The anguish and pain in our hearts;
We need time to remember and time
to mourn,
Before the recovery starts.

Let's draw together to recuperate,
As we go through this period of sorrow;
Let's help each other, with tender care
To find a brighter tomorrow.

Mrs. Pat Warren

Work has been a long routine,
Now it's time to change your scene.
The journey lasted, so many years,
Now get ready, for some cheers.

You have done, a top notch job,
We shall miss you, we may sob.
Freedom will be, something new,
You'll enjoy the brand new view.

We're happy for you, that you're done,
Try new hobbies, have some fun.
No more thoughts about employ,
Take it easy, and share your joy.

The Bridge Yearbook 2012 - 2013 had 140 color pages with the theme of 75 years of memories. 100 books were ordered and it was published by Walsworth in Brookfield, Missouri. Our Yearbook Sales Representative was Jim Straub and our Customer Service Representative was Michelle Brosemer. The yearbook cover was designed by Brooklyn Wexell and Mrs. Anderson. The book was created by Michelle North. The cover was a Gloss Laminate and 4-Color on Full Cover. The cover stock was #100 FSC Certified C1S on 98 PT Graphic Board. Namestamping was printed in white on 30 books. The yearbook was sold in the fall for $65.00 and for $75.00 after Christmas, this price also included a Spring Memory book. The paper stock of the yearbook was on Legend Gloss 80#, book size was 8.5 by 11, binding was Smyth Sewn Hard Cover, and the submission application was Online Design. The delivery date was set for August 01, 2013. The titles were printed in Benguait, bold at 55 - 60 point font and the captions were printed in AvantGuard 10 - 12 point font. This years book is the 75th edition of Cambridge High School Yearbooks, so the yearbook staff added pages and pictures from the past yearbooks into this years book. The staff also choose to add the Year in Review digital package and the Autograph Supplement from Walsworth.

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 45 YEARS, a baseball player won the batting Triple Crown when Detroit's Miguel Cabrera led the American League in batting average, home runs and RBI.

AFTER 82 YEARS IN OPERATION, Hostess Brands, the maker of Twinkies, Ding-Dongs and Wonder Bread, closed up shop. The company, which was in bankruptcy, planned to sell its assets, leaving a glimmer of hope that another company would bring back the much-loved confections. The end of Hostess shut down 33 bakeries, 565 distribution centers and 570 bakery outlets, and 18,500 jobs were lost.

PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA, a Democrat, won re-election with 62.6 million votes – 51% of the popular vote and 332 electoral votes – over his opponent, former Massachusetts Gov. Mitt Romney. Key battleground states, such as Ohio and Florida, went for Obama, as did a majority of women and minority voters. Republicans retained control of the House of Representatives, while Democrats kept control of the Senate.

IT'S PURR-FECT! A cat was added as the new Monopoly game piece. A vote on Facebook let people decide which new game piece should be added, and which should go. The iron was voted out.

LANCE ARMSTRONG, the American cyclist who famously won the Tour de France seven times while also overcoming cancer, was charged with using performance-enhancing drugs by the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency. Armstrong was stripped of his titles and banned from cycling for life. Armstrong later confessed to using the banned substances during a national TV interview with talk show host Oprah Winfrey.

THE U.S. AMBASSADOR TO LIBYA, J. Christopher Stevens, was killed along with three others during a terrorist attack on the U.S. Embassy in Benghazi on Sept. 11. Congressional hearings delved into the cause of the attack and the failure to protect the ambassador.

IN OCTOBER, FELIX BAUMGARTNER set new world records by sky diving about 24 miles above the Earth's surface and reaching a speed of 834 miles per hour during his fall. Baumgartner jumped from a helium balloon flight and successfully landed in New Mexico.

HURRICANE SANDY BLASTED THE EAST COAST Oct. 29, killing more than 120 people from the Caribbean to New England. New York City and New Jersey were especially hard hit, leaving millions of residents without power and in short supply of food and gas for weeks. Damage estimates were put at $42 billion for New York state and $30 billion for New Jersey. The super storm, 820 miles in diameter, even created surfing conditions on Lake Michigan at Chicago.

FOR THE SECOND TIME IN THREE SEASONS, the San Francisco Giants won the World Series when they swept the Detroit Tigers in four games. San Francisco's Pablo Sandoval hit three home runs in Game 1 and was chosen the series MVP.

IT WAS A QUITE A YEAR FOR INDIE ROCK BAND FUN. Their song "We Are Young" hit number one and became the first song ever to have more than 300,000 digital downloads for seven straight weeks. Fun scored another top 10 hit with "Some Nights" then followed it up by receiving six Grammy nominations.

ALABAMA ROLLED to its second straight national title, and third in four years, by defeating Notre Dame, 42-14, in college football's BCS championship game. Running back Eddie Lacy ran for 140 yards and a touchdown, and was chosen one of the game's MVPs.

PEOPLE WORLDWIDE DECRIED the attempted assassination of Malala Yousufzai, 14, of Pakistan by the Taliban. She was gunned down for her outspoken criticism of the Taliban's ban on educating girls. She survived and spent months recovering in a hospital in England.

FACEBOOK INCREASED ITS PRESENCE in our lives. It bought Instagram, the photo-editing and sharing app for Android and iPhone users. It went public and began offering stock, enabling people to own a piece of the company. Facebook put more ads into the news feed of its mobile apps, and analysts waited to see if users adjusted or became annoyed.

COST

THE BALTIMORE RAVENS WON SUPER BOWL XLVII IN NEW ORLEANS, defeating the San Francisco 49ers 34-31. The game featured a brother vs. brother coaching matchup between Baltimore's John Harbaugh and San Francisco's Jim Harbaugh. The Ravens built a huge lead behind quarterback Joe Flacco and receiver Anquan Boldin before holding off a late 49ers rally, while both teams dealt with a 30-minute second half delay due to a power outage in the Superdome.

FACING A SELF-IMPOSED Jan. 1 deadline of forced, wide-ranging tax increases and spending cuts known as the "fiscal cliff," Congress passed the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012. The act extended the Bush era tax cuts but raised other taxes, including the Social Security part of the payroll tax. Passage of the act averted a recession at that time, and Congress continued its work by preparing to discuss spending cuts.

THE SUMMER OLYMPICS took over London and the world's attention in August. The U.S. won Gold for only the second time ever in the women's gymnastics team event. Gabby Douglas, McKayla Maroney, Aly Raisman, Kyla Ross and Jordyn Wieber became known as the "Fierce Five." Jamaican sprinter Usain Bolt became the first man to ever win the 100 and 200 meters in back-to-back Olympics. Swimmer Michael Phelps won six more medals to become the most decorated Olympian ever.

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE OWNERS declared a player lockout less than a month before the start of the 2012-13 season. The labor dispute over revenues stretched into the new year, forcing the cancellation of more than 600 games before it was finally settled on Jan. 6., and the season began on Jan. 19.
