Mr. Dan Caras

Mr. Caras is happily married to his wife Georgjean, whom he describes as a Chicago girl that became a country girl. He has two sons, Dean and Nick. Dean works in Washington D.C. in the State Department, and Nick lives and works in Davenport in chiropractic medicine. Mr. Caras' final comment: "Live long and Prosper. C.H.S. #1!"

Mr. Dan Caras has worked at Cambridge High School for thirty-four years. He taught history before becoming the principal at C.H.S. Mr. Caras recalls his favorite memory, "Each and every day for the past thirty plus years here at C.H.S." Mr. Caras' future plans are to become a taxi driver in Chicago and work evenings at a Greek

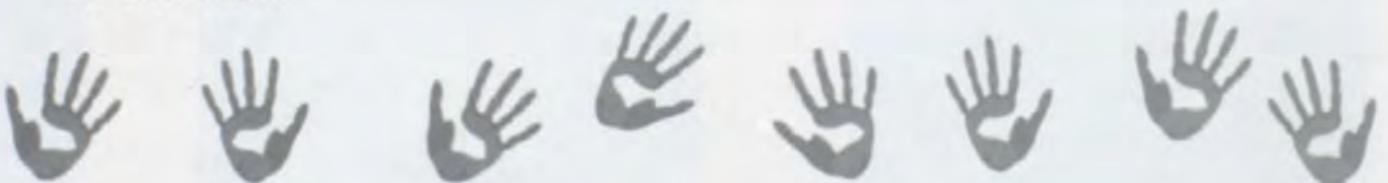

Mr. Jim Berthold has been the superintendent at Cambridge High for the past eight years. After his retirement he plans to travel, as well as become a software trainer for accounting programs. Mr. Berthold's favorite memory at C.H.S. was when the school celebrated its fiftieth year. Two of the first board members were able to attend, Jim Gustafson and Bob Arndt. Mr. Berthold has a lovely wife named Pam. She enjoys running, hiking, and bike riding. Mr. Berthold has three children. Aaron, is a teacher in Denver, Colorado. Kristen attends Illinois State University, and will graduate this spring. Karen will graduate from C.H.S. this year and plans to attend Illinois State this fall. Mr. Berthold's final comment: "I will miss working with the students, staff, parents, community members, and the Board of Education."

Mr. Jim Berthold

"Remember Me This Way"
-Jordan Hill

Mrs. Elizabeth Boardwell

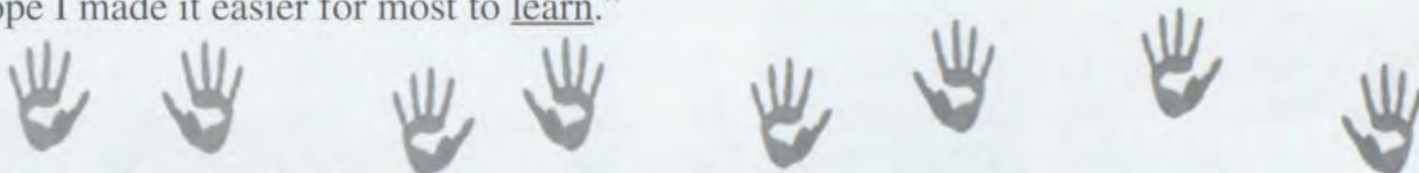

Mrs. Elizabeth Boardwell has worked at Cambridge High School for the past nineteen years. Her future plans are to help her husband in his business, to get involved in her church, and to enjoy her family. Mrs. Boardwell has four children, eighteen grandchildren, and two great grandchildren, soon to be three. One of her daughters lives in California with her family, while another daughter and family live in Minnesota. A son and daughter also live in Geneseo and Galva, respectively. Mrs. Boardwell plans to visit her daughters in California and Minnesota more often. Mrs. Boardwell has enjoyed working with her companions throughout the past years.

Mrs. Boardwell's final comment: "I have enjoyed serving the school district these many years."

Mr. Mike McAvoy has worked at Cambridge for thirty-one "long, brutal years." He worked two years in the Cambridge Jr. High, before moving up to high school. Mr. McAvoy's future plans are to "live long and prosper." His favorite memory has been able to work with Mr. Dan Caras and Mr. Carl (the legend) Goff. Mr. McAvoy is married to Sherlynn, who has retired from Geneseo Middle School. He has a son named Benjamin who is also in education. Mr. McAvoy's final comment: "I probably never taught anyone anything; I hope I made it easier for most to learn."

Mr. Mike McAvoy

Mrs. Linda Roehrs

Mrs. Linda Roehrs has worked at C.H.S. for twenty-one years. She was a substitute for ten years before becoming a teacher at Cambridge. Mrs. Roehrs plans on working part time in either gardening, or crafts. Mrs. Roehrs also plans on traveling to see her family in Nebraska with her husband John. She is also planning on doing more for her church. Mrs. Roehrs says that her favorite memories were coaching the 1990 and 1991 cheerleading squads. She also has enjoyed helping several students become productive members of society as they graduate from C.H.S. Mrs. Roehrs is married to John. Together they have three children: David, Dixie, and Darcy. All live in the area. Now that both she and her husband are retired, they are thinking about taking a cruise next year.

Mr. Mark Skelton

Mr. Mark Skelton has worked a total of eleven years at Cambridge. He hopes to continue to enjoy life and to watch his family grow and prosper. After leaving C.H.S., Mr. Skelton plans to open a restaurant in Cambridge. Over his years at C.H.S., Mr. Skelton says he has "enjoyed working with the great teachers and administrators who have become close friends, as well as the relationships you build with the students." Mr. Skelton is married to Judy, who works at the grade school and will also help in his restaurant. Together they have two children, Ali and Nate. Ali is a Junior at St. Ambrose University, and Nate is a Freshman at Beloit College.

Mr. Al Payne

Mr. Al Payne has worked at the Cambridge schools for ten years. Mr. Payne plans to travel and enjoy time with his grandchildren after his retirement at C.H.S. He enjoyed going on field trips over the years. Mr. Payne is married to Jere, who retired from the County Clerk's office. Together they have two children, Marcia and Marty. Marcia is employed at the Homestead restaurant, and Marty is a principal at Henry, Illinois. Mr. Payne also has three grandchildren, Mariah, Brian, and Eric. Mr. Payne says, "I have enjoyed working at the school for the past ten years."

Mr. Clyde Maertens

Mr. Clyde Maertens has worked at the Cambridge schools for fifteen years. After his retirement, he plans to continue expanding his excavating business. Mr. Maertens enjoyed driving to games and field trips, especially when his boys were involved. Mr. Maertens is married to Kaye, who is the secretary at the Cambridge High School. They have three boys, Todd, Kurt, and Brad. Todd works for John Deere Co. Kurt is finishing his Graduate degree at the University of Illinois, and Brad is a student at Black Hawk College. Mr. Maertens says, "I have enjoyed working for the school district these past fifteen years."

I would like to thank the staff that worked on the yearbook. I would also like to thank Mrs. Brandau and Kathy Stromquist. Eric Hutchins also deserves a thank you for helping us complete this yearbook.

To the graduating seniors, in the past years we have had our ups and downs, but it was all worth it. The moment has finally come where we can go out into the world ourselves. Remember the memories that we have created and good luck in the future.
