Take a good look at this building. Think of your first day there. Think of your friends and the games that you played on the famous blacktop. Think of the many times you skinned your knees and elbows on the cinders on the north side of the building. Remember the relay races on the front sidewalk. Think of the cramped classrooms and the races to the cafeteria at lunchtime. Remember the weird water fountains in the basement where the water was always lukewarm, but never cold. Remember your teachers. Remember the cases of stuffed animals in the upstairs corridor. Now realize that it is gone.

We, the class of '69 dedicate this 1968-1969 yearbook to our grade school. May it rest in peace.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

Candidates were: A. Heck, E. Hedbloom, P. Sears, G. Stach, D. Johnson, B. Munson, B. Nelson, R. Fike, L. Walheim, (not pictured) and M. DeDecker.

Anne and Ed as they lead the Grand March

For the second year, the 68-69 Cambridge Homecoming opened with a gala parade not dampened by rain. Once again, the juniors took first place with their float entitled, "Vi-Kings Trump the Aces." The Senior class's float "Stab for Victory" won second place, the Sophomores "Vikings Beat Aces" won third, and the Freshmen's "Trump the Aces" got fourth place.

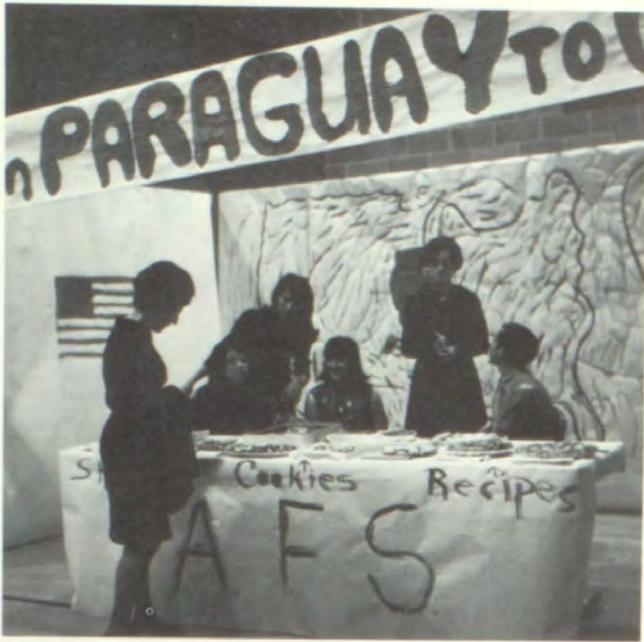

All the festivities ended with the crowning of Queen, Anne Heck, and King, Ed Hedbloom.

Spectators enjoyed the balmy weather for the afternoon game.

VIKING CARNIVAL

The 1969 Viking Carnival was a lot of work but also fun. Work started on Friday night to set up booths with much scurrying Saturday to get the final things done. There was a full house as most prizes and baked goods were won. The night drew to an end with the crowning of the king and queen. Ron Anderson and Ann Penstone, last year's royalty, crowned the junior candidates, Bob Angus and Roselyn Stach. Other candidates were Jerry Ruhnnow and Barb Nelson, seniors; Kevin Gustafson and Linda Beuseling, sophomores; and Jim Whorley and Dianna Morey, Freshmen.

King Bob Angus and Queen Roselyn Stach.

Give me the flashcubes, will ya?

Again this year the F.F.A. and the F.H.A. joined forces to sponsor the Sweetheart Ball; the theme was Winter Wonderland. Couples danced around a jolly snowman to the music of the Bixley Blues' band. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Sweetheart and Heart-throb, Kaye Beuseling and Bruce Johnson. The attendants were Cindy VanDyke and Don Johnston as Duchess and Duke; Mary Ann Boelens and John Gibson were Princess and Prince.

"LIFE OF

After six weeks of work, the night of the junior class play finally came. Mr. Bredthauer had to pull a few teeth to get us to memorize our lines and get the stage set, but it was worth it. Everything previous to the final performance on April 18 was really work, but the fun we had doing it was something you only get with the excitement of being a junior.

The cast included, Arlys Fickling as Jean Hughes, Ann Naslund as Mildred Hughs, Ilene Gresch as Amy Hughs, Bob Angus as Teddy Hughes, Tom Burgeson as Mr. Jesse Hughes, Marcia Hanson as Mrs. Harriet Hughes, Mark Leander as Mike Tisdale, Merrill Muller as Tommy King, Mary Moriarity as Ruth Coats, Bob Huston as Snazzy Mitchell, Karen Hopkins as Sally Frazire, Jane Palmer as Mrs. Victoria Coats, Bob Schumaker as Officer Walter Lipscomb, Linda Berry as Dottie Kixmiller, Kathy Stahl as Hope Shuttlewak, Gary Manthe as Charles Collier, and Carolyn Sheesley as Maryrolalie Vogulhut.

Director was Mr. Jerry Bredthauer, student director was Ann Penstone, Business Manager was Dave Sherrard, Prompter was Linda Swanson, Sound effects was supervised by Jim Lund, and Lights and Curtains by Dick Lundburg.

JUNIOR SENIOR PROM

On the evening of May 4, the Jr. -Sr. Prom began with the dance in the gymnasium. The theme was "Under the Enchanted Sea" and music was provided by the Mellonotes from Kewanee.

Near the end of the dance, Roger Fike and Barb Nelson were crowned king and queen by Jim Moriarity and Ann Penstone, who was standing in for Carol Teleen.

Following the dance, the prom-goers attended the banquet at Valley View Country Club. Bob Angus, the toastmaster introduced the program featuring the class prophecy, read by Linda Berry.

After the banquet, the couples went to the bowling alley to see "The Day the Earth Stood Still" and to bowl.

The punch was especially good!!

Prom was an exciting experience for Zoom.

The beautiful music inspired everyone to get up and Dance (Ha).

HONORS ASSEMBLY
 The Honors Assembly was held on May 22, 1969. Installation of Student Council officers opened; followed by our AFS student Zulma Cardona. The presentation of awards was made to those deserving students who have worked in the various activities and organizations. Athletic awards were made to those boys participating in sports this past year.

AT LONG LAST—GRADUATION

GRADUATION 1969

There are times in everyone's life when he must break away from the familiar secure life he is so used to and go off in search of his goals without help from anyone else. Graduation is one of these times.

When anyone mentions Graduation, it is as if everything is all over--no more games, school dances, slumber parties; no more acting like "high school kids". Now we are adults and it is hard to realize.

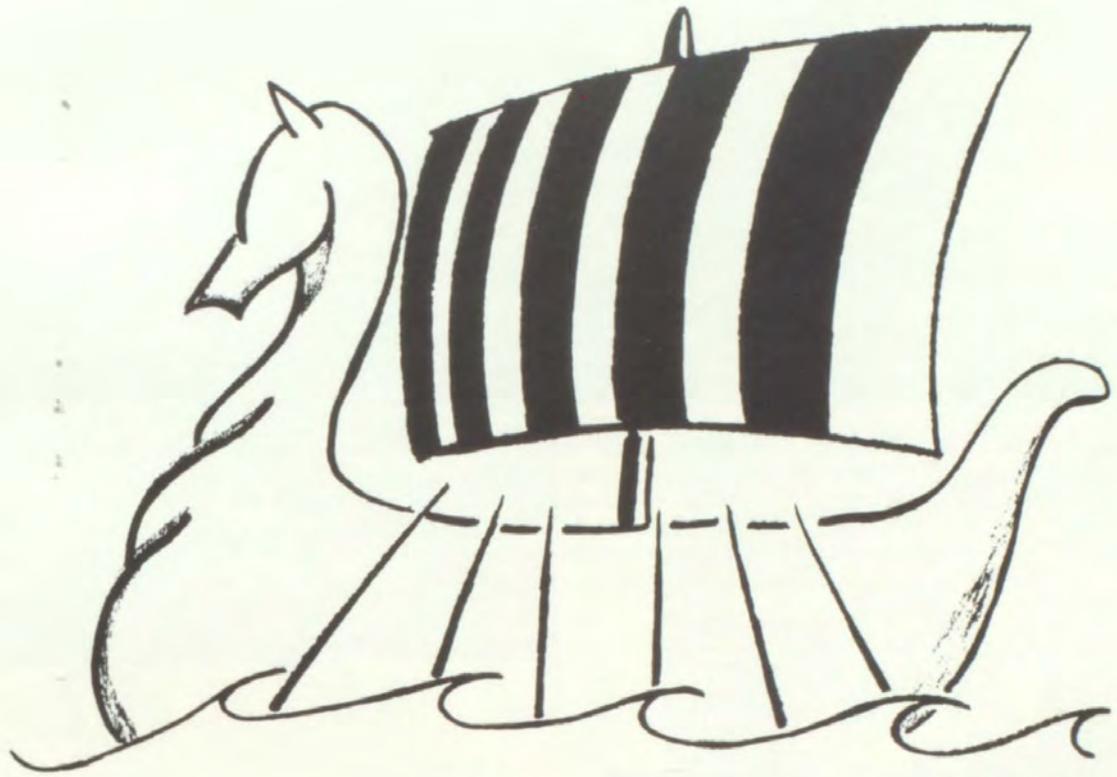

None of us will forget our days here. No one ever really wants to leave, but everyone knows he must. That probably explains why Graduation is such a sad time.

A person can do a lot of growing up in four years, and those four years can bring back memories that will last a lifetime.

We have four band groups at C.H.S. They are the marching, concert and pep bands and the stage band. The marching band performed at all home football games under the direction of Arlys Fickling, head majorette.

Hard work, wet feet, drooping hair -- they're all worth it in order to put on a good performance. Everyone especially enjoyed the colored lights show put on by the marching band this year.

With the end of football season, the marching band retired and the concert band began to practice under the direction of Mr. Charles Burrus.

BAND

The Stage and concert bands joined forces in February to present a pop's concert. The refreshments were served during the concert, so naturally the audience enjoyed it. The main theme of the concert was "In Ye Olde Towne Square."

Unfortunately we were unable to attend contest this year; it seems there was a mix-up in the reservations. Overlooking this, we had a pretty good year.

P.S. The bus ride was exceptionally quiet this year without a radio, but we made it all the way to Northwestern University and back.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our Leaders???????

The Student Council, supervised by Mr. Goff and Mr. Mungerson, is one of the most important and active organizations of C.H.S. Student representatives voice opinions of the student body.

During the year the Student Council sponsors many activities. For the first time, a freshman Orientation was held this year. Student Council also planned Homecoming activities, Parent's Nite, a pancake breakfast, and a dress-up day.

Each year officers are elected for the following year. This period preceding election is always an exciting one as all the candidates campaign vigorously.

The 1968-69 Student Council worked hard for its student body.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

L. Wahlheim, V. Pres., E. Hedbloom, Pres.,
B. Nelson, Sec.-Treas.

The National Honor Society, sponsored by Mr. Buhlig, Mr. Bredtauer, and Mr. Nordstrom, is an organization for honor students. By the second semester of their sophomore year, the members must have attained an 88 academic average. Also the members must possess qualities of leadership, service, and character. During their sophomore year, these students are placed on probation, at which time they may attend the regular meetings, but may not vote or hold office. If after one year they maintain these qualifications they are then permanent members and enjoy privileges of this. This year, the members were honored at a luncheon given by the Men's Club in Cambridge.

MAROON & WHITE

"Well . . . ?"

The Maroon and White staff was under the direction of Mrs. Hulslander this year. Also the Viking Views, a bi-monthly school paper, was published. The staff, Bonnie Keeney, Tom Burgeson, Mike Crapnell, Sally Crosiar, Carol Wiley, Anne Heck, Marty Crapnell and Mary Moriarity were kept busy reporting the news to all of us.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club has as its main purpose the training of students to work as student librarians in the study halls. Their duties involve checking out books, collecting fines, and distributing magazines.

Students are invited to join this club, usually at the end of their first semester freshman year. This year there are 30 members. Miss Koehne is the sponsor.

Students of C.H.S. eagerly await the annual appearance of the Viking. To them it is more than a book; it is an intimate record of their happiest memories at C.H.S.: prom, hop, lunch, sports, experiments, classes, teachers, homecoming . . .

The Viking Staff is a chosen group of juniors and seniors responsible for the publishing of the yearbook. Their job requires many long hours of work and a lot of trouble meeting deadlines. Drawing layouts, writing copies, taking and developing pictures, typing copies, and proofreading are all a part of the work done by the staff.

The main money making project is the Viking Carnival. This year's Carnival was a lot of fun and a great success.

Miss Koehne, sponsor of the Viking Staff, is a great help to all the members of the Viking Staff, and we owe a lot to her.

F.T.A.

This year the F.T.A. was sponsored by Mrs. McGill. Members honored National Education Week with the annual Teacher's Tea and also presented each teacher with an apple. This year the October meeting of the Blackhawk Division was held in Cambridge.

Again this year, a scholarship is to be given to a senior member to further their education.

The purpose of F.T.A. is to acquaint members with the teaching profession; and to promote better student-faculty relation.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club this year centered its attention on Spanish speaking countries and their customs. To help with this, was our exchange student from South America, Zulma Cardona. Mrs. Decker is the sponsor and membership is limited to those in Spanish or who have previously had a Spanish course.

P. Naslund, C. Wiley, L. Gustafson; P. Sears were Spanish club officers for this year.

Si-Si-Senor!

F.F.A.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization. Its main goal is to help students interested in pursuing careers in Agri-business. Mr. Wohrley is the sponsor for the local chapter. Under his helpful eye, members are encouraged to complete projects in raising livestock and home improvement.

Proving themselves to be successful farmers, the FFA boys made a good harvest.

Front Row: Advisor Mr. Wohrley, J. Gibson, T. Owfns, D. Johnson, B. Palmer, J. Hultman, D. Sherrard, S. Owens, R. Franck, M. Klavohn, B. Beuseling, J. Wohrley, B. Stach, R. Edmund. Second Row: S. The basic goals of the Future Homemakers of America are to work towards developing better homes and a better standard of community living for the future. The FHA'ers with the help of their advisor, Mrs. Woitel, have been doing just this. They were fortunate to have Marcia Hanson represent Cambridgeas Treasurer of Section 10. They were also fortunate to have Arlys Fickling attend the national convention in Miami, Florida. Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Hanson, and Mrs. Gresch were the chapter mothers.

This year's activities have included; a sock hop, a bake sale, a needy family drive, an officer's training school, a carnival food stand, Daddy-Date-Night, Sweetheart Ball, Sadie Hawkins Dance, FHA Week, the hosting of the Section 10 rally, the Mother-Daughter Banquet, and a trip to Chicago.

An important part of the music department is its chorus. Here students are taught the basics of such things as phrasing and sight-reading. This year the choral department consists of a boys', a girls', and a mixed chorus. There are also three ensembles to provide special entertainment. Meeting three times a week during eighth hour, the mixed chorus prepares itself for its two annual performances, the Spring concert and the Christmas concert. The chorus also takes part in the conference music festival, held this year in Sherrard.

"Zoom" enjoys herself bowling, something she had never tried before coming here.

In the past 5 years, the Cambridge chapter of the American Field Service has sponsored 3 foreign exchange students at Cambridge High School. This year the committee which includes 7 students sponsored Maria Zulma Cardona.

Zulma, or "Zoom" as everyone calls her, is from Asuncion, Paraguay. Her stay in Cambridge introduced her to many American customs. She learned to like American food (especially Swan's french fries), and she learned how to bowl and play girl's basketball. In return she taught us many of the South American customs.

Zoom contributed much to the daily routine of school life and she became a great friend to the entire student body and all who became acquainted with her. We will all truly miss her.

"Zoom" joined several organizations and participated in their activities.

A charming speaker, she had no trouble holding everyone's interest.

Farewell to C.H.S.

Today, May 5, they asked me to write something saying good-bye to the school. But as you know, I always hated to talk about it. However, I don't have too much to do about it and I have to face the reality as it is.

Yes, my days are becoming shorter. The day of leaving Cambridge is not very far away and the happiness and fun I have had at CHS is soon over.

Did you ever dream something and when you wake up, you want that dream to come true because it was just beautiful? Well, it happened to me a long time ago. I had a dream about coming to the United States but I neither thought of it nor that it would come true. But I guess God always looks upon us and He saw that this was my most desirable dream.

Then the day came. I could say I was kind of scared about coming but it did not take me so long to forget about it because as soon as I got here I realized that my new life in Cambridge was going to be a wonderful experience for me. So here I was, in a little town with so many friends who helped me wherever I went, whenever I needed it. I didn't even need to talk about a problem--it had already been solved. I thought that was the most marvelous thing that could happen to me. It was better than what I had dreamed before!

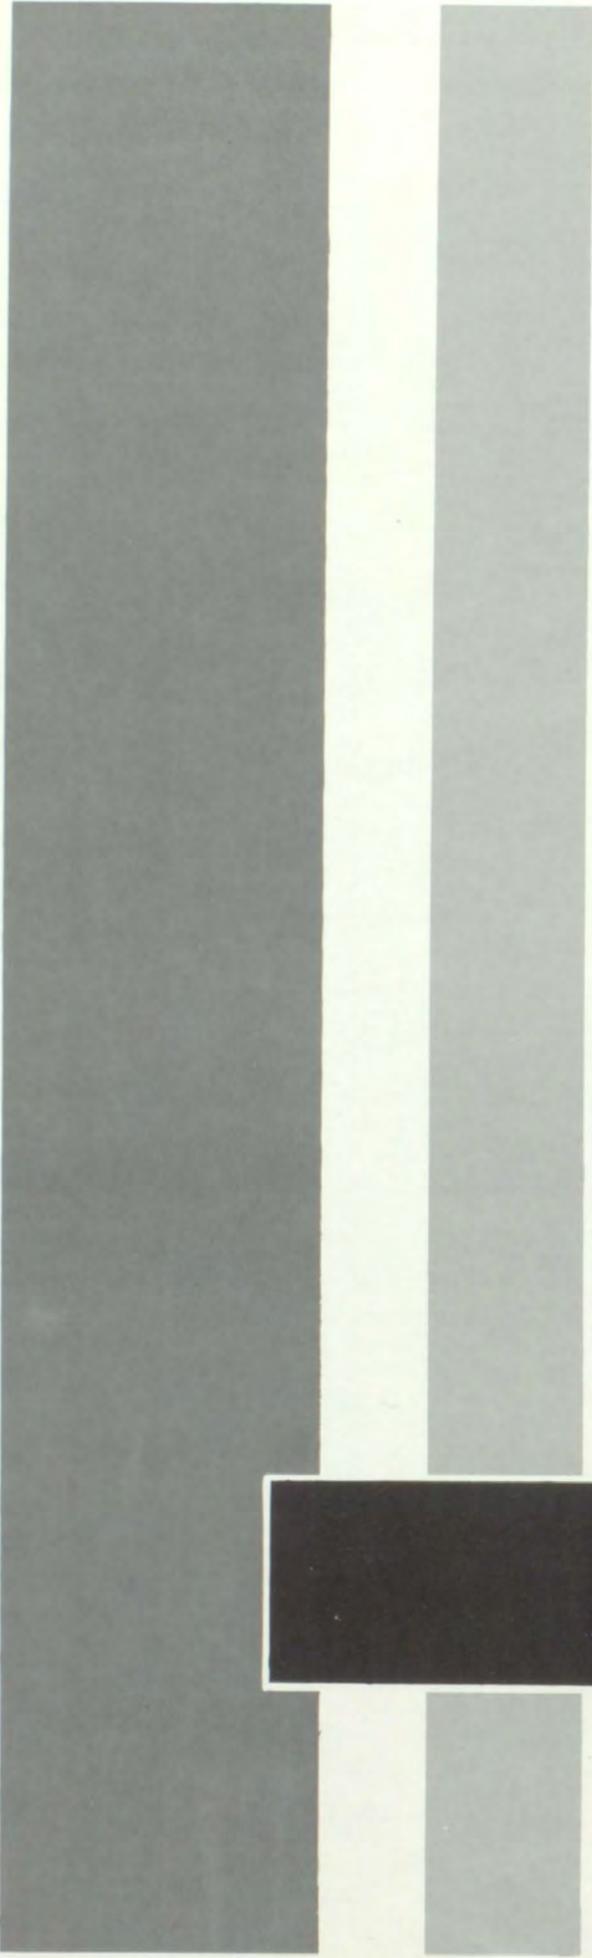

Everything was beautiful--the school, community and my nice family. It was perfect until I had the news that I had to go back in less than two months. This shocked me! I knew that some day this had to happen but I never realized what it meant. So, my friends, that day is getting here and the word I don't want even to pronounce has to be. But before saying it, I want to thank all of you for the great time I had at CHS this year, for all the beautiful help and for your smiles. How can I forget the smiles of everyone?

Let me tell you one more thing, and then I will leave you. "Keep being that way and everyone will love you as much as I do; they will remember you as long as I will and keep you in their hearts forever as I will. My thanks to the teachers, the authorities, the student body and especially to the Class of 1969 for sharing everything with me.

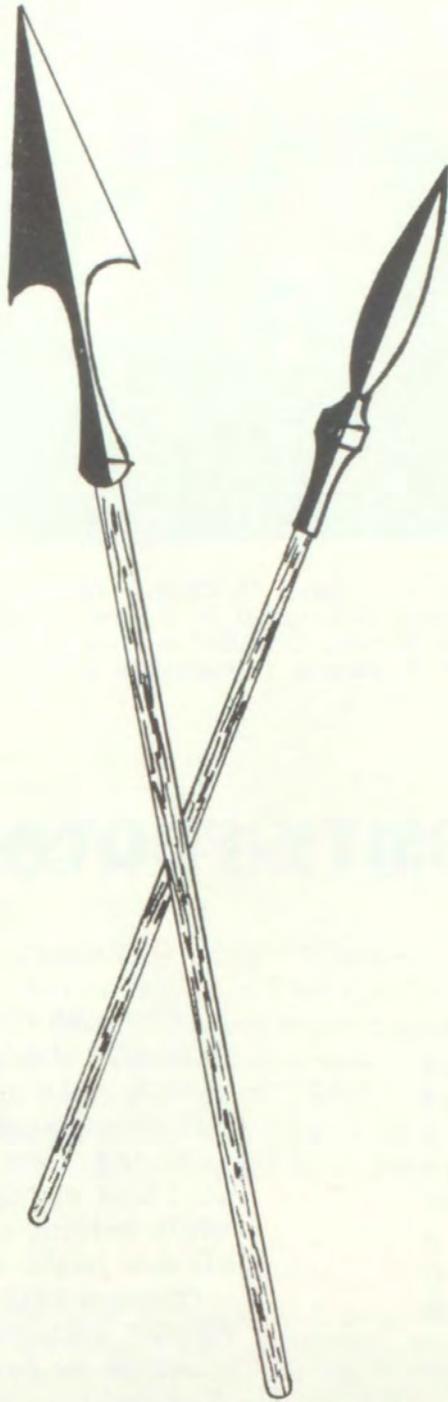

One last word, dear friends at CHS--"Good-bye"--but not forever. Some day, I am sure I will be back to see you again.

You can be sure that I will tell everyone in Paraguay how wonderful you are!

Football season 1968 looked bad, at first, for the Vikings this year. As the season wore on, the Vikings caught fire and streaked on to wins.

Going down the stretch, Coach Goff's gridders managed to score 49 points while holding opponents to a mere 12--all this in the last three games.

Games holding the most significance for the Vikings were the Rockridge one, in which we defeated the previously undefeated Rockridge 6--0. Of course, a game which really caught us up was the Orion game in which we defeated our old arch-rival 9--6.

Vikings go after their win!

Push it over boys!

FRESH-SOPH FOOTBALL

This year Coach Devinney's fresh-soph football team did well. Their only losses were to Erie, in a non-conference game; and to Sherrard in a low scoring game defensive game. With many of the freshmen as starters, we should again have a good team next year.

Back Row: Coach Arcand, G. Johnson, R. Scott, M. Maertens, J. Lang, D. Boberg, D. Robinson, D. Wells, M. Krumtinger, P. Hultgren, R. Cross, K. Gustafson, J. Lund, B. Lindburg, D. Nelson, D. Coach Devinney had his best season of coaching with a 14--0 record; 16--2 over-all. With a good starting five and a strong bench, Cambridge had little trouble overcoming their foes. The team effort paid off when Cambridge defeated Orion for the championship, 64--63, ending a very successful season. With many experienced freshmen coming off a successful year, CHS should have a very promising team for the 69-70 season.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Although the Vikings finished the 68-69 campaign with a seemingly dismal 4--16 record and 6th place in the conference, there is much indication that next year's squad promises to be near the top of the standings. This year's squad was led by Gary Stach and Dick Lindburg. For the first time in quite a few years several sophomores were given valuable varsity experience. This should help tremendously the next few years. Yes, next year's squad promises to be a perennial powerhouse in the conference.

TRACK 1969

Although this year's track squad did not have a highly successful season, indications from the performances of the underclassmen point to a very promising future on the cinders.

Two school records were set this spring:

Roger Scott broad jump 21' 3/4"

Dennis Coziahr shot put 46' 11 3/4"

With many underclassmen returning, next year's track team should be a very successful one.

ADMINISTRATORS

Mr. Albert Smith, the superintendent of schools, is one of our most important members of the school administration. He is kept busy with meetings, reports and other school business.

Mr. Wayne Buhlig, high school principal, is busy enough with "problem students", overseeing school events and he still finds time to teach a Freshman typing class.

The Board of Education in Cambridge holds another important position in the schools. It is their responsibility to determine salaries, hire new teachers; and budget various financial transactions. On them also rest decisions on extra curricular activities.

The two secretaries at school are busy all day with typing, answering phones, and assisting the students and faculty.

CLASSMEN

This year the "Class of 1970" joined with the seniors to become the upper-classmen of CHS.

Beginning with the selection of class rings early in the year, juniors have been busy since. Joint cooperation of the class members earned them the Spirit Award during Homecoming Week. From there the juniors went on to capture first place with their Homecoming float "Vikings Trump the Aces".

Carnival time for the juniors meant more hard work for them at their annual Bar-B-Que supper and work day, if their candidates, Roselyn Stach and Bob Angus were to win. Hard work triumphed and juniors were victorious for the third Carnival in three years.

Sweetheart Ball caught Mary Ann Boelens and Leonard Boelens in the limelight.

From here we go into the class play, "Life of the Party"; then on to the Prom.

Next year, undoubtedly, will carry as many pleasant memories as this.

SOPHOMORES

P. Johnson, V. Pres.; B. Lindburg, Sec.; K. Gustafson, Pres.; C. Johnston, Treas.; T. Gilvin, Student C. Rep.

What did you say the answer is?

--And then what do we do?

With their second year at CHS behind them, the sophomores have been entered into the great social whirl. To raise money for support of their Carnival candidates, Linda Beuseling and Kevin Gustafson, the sophomores sponsored a work day and a chili supper.

In sports, we found the sophomore boys were the pace setters for the fresh-soph basketball team.

Sweetheart Ball found Linda Beuseling and Roger Gradert the favored candidates of their class.

As the year neared to an end, the sophomores have their forthcoming year --as juniors--to look forward to.

Who's sleepy?

Busy sophomores type away.

Who wants their report card?

Now, what did he say this was?

"Gather round all ye freshmen."

T. Metz, Treas.; D. Morey, Pres.; J. Lange; Student C.Rep., B. Reppert, V. Pres.; C. Schumaker, Sec.

Although the freshmen did not have an initiation day, they were initiated into the CHS Realm at the All School Dance in September. Then came the work!

In preparation, for the Carnival freshmen sponsored a work day and a Smorgasboard Supper. Their candidates Dianna Morey and Jim Wohrley were close in second place to the juniors.

FRESHMEN

Hey, where are you going?

In sports, we found the boys active in all sports; anxious to prove their athletic talents and sportsmanship. The freshmen girls were not to be outdone, however, as was represented by Debra Grant and Eileen Heck, fresh-soph cheerleaders.

Next year is another step up the ladder; we will discover what a year as sophomores will contain.

Freshmen gather for the first time to begin plans for--

Miss Koehne discusses yearbook progress at a Viking Staff Meeting.

Although seemingly idle, Spoon is actually dreaming up new photography methods.

Paula and Anne take a short break to fix their hair and talk over plans for the yearbook.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Hard work . . . long hours . . . and pressing deadlines just about sum up this past year as the staff and we labored to make the '69 VIKING a true and unbiased picture of life at Cambridge High School.

With the last deadline almost completed, we look back over the year and experience a feeling of gratitude--gratitude first of all to our staff for their steadfast work and faithfulness; to Miss Koehne, adviser, for her invaluable assistance; to Mr. William Schultz, photographer, for his pictures and willing retakes; and to Mr. M. L. Gardner, American Yearbook Representative, for his helpful tips.

We would also like to express our thanks to Superintendent Albert Smith, Principal Wayne Buhlig, and the office secretaries for the co-operation and interest they showed throughout the year with their help and generous gifts of office space and equipment.
