Cross Country

Now we all know being a teenager is hard, and high school makes everyone a little crazy. But we are here to give a few tips to survive these four years:

Teen Survival

Organize your time- In high school many of us will end up with more after school activities, sometimes even a job. Planners are the perfect way to keep yourself organized. Just don't spread yourself too thin. Don't join every club just because your friends have.

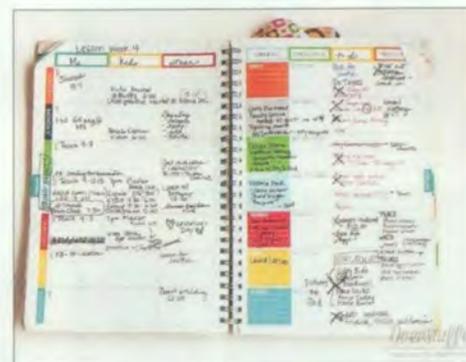

Study and take notes- For most people, taking notes is the worst part of class, well that's why you should try adding color. Now color coding might sound like a lot of work, but it keeps your notebook fun and becomes easier to study. You want to make sure you are somewhere quiet, and if necessary, keep the music low. Make sure you have no distractions like your TV or phone.

Drama- Drama is almost impossible to avoid completely, but there are ways to not have it all the time. It starts with you and who you choose to hang out with. Make sure you choose friends who support you and everyone in your friend group gets along.

Friends- Now you'll need friends to get through high school, but you have to choose the right friends. Don't choose friends who are mean to you or have you doing things you normally wouldn't do. This can lead to trouble. Choose friends that support you and are there when you need them.

Relationships- Don't stress too much about who you are dating in high school. Most of the time they won't last, although they can. But you have to remember to enjoy your time with your boyfriend or girlfriend, but realize they aren't the whole world.

Although high school is stressful, find ways to help ease that stress. But more importantly enjoy yourself, join in, go to dances, cheer on the varsity team at the Friday night football games. Make the most of your high school experience!

Marching Band

Marching Mishaps

Austin Hanson - "During my seventh grade year, we had a competition at Western, and we had to go through windows on the field. I went through the wrong window and was ran over."

Wiley Hart - "I was walking up some steps then I tripped and my base drum landed on my hand. I had to get stitches."

Cameron Woodbury - "I was in a parade during eighth grade year and it was really hot and my hands became really sweaty and my bass drum stick flew out of my hands, so Jacob Stone handed me one of his."

David Stinson - "We were coming off the field and I tripped over a brick and fell."

Winter

2016-2017

Short days and long, cold nights bring out the Uggs, scarves, and hot chocolate. It is also the season for basketball, pep band, and wrestling. Our clubs like LEV , JKB, and FFA are still going strong. Third quarter is usually the toughest one in the classroom, and the looming SATs are always on our minds.

JKB, LEV, NKS

The alphabet clubs, as they are fondly known, have similar qualities: all are dedicated to service and volunteering. Students must show leadership, ethics, and values by giving back to the school - like when they brought in animals from the Humane Society to help with the stress of first semester finals, and to the community - like when they prepared care boxes for the homeless.

NHS Seniors

The four purposes of the National Honor Society include:

Spring 2017

We are almost outta here! But there is a lot left to accomplish before that last day of school finally arrives. Baseball and softball are in full swing and track athletes run their races. The fine arts have plenty with the Spring Musical, Mus-Art, and Jazz Night. Prom is the last big hurrah before graduation and our thoughts turn inevitably to the future and the outside world. Happy Spring!

Hannah has enjoyed every show she has been in but she said her favorites were "The Sound of Music" and "Beauty and the Beast" Hannah has had to play a wide range of characters she said her favorite was, "Mrs. Gloop because who doesn't love to sing in weird accents and shove food in peoples mouths." #QueenGloop

Mitchell Todd: Mitchell has been in 6 shows and out of those his favorite was "Beauty and the Beast." It's no surprise Mitchell's favorite character to play was LeFou because he likes to play funny characters. Sometimes being in shows is hard Mitchell said the worst part of the shows is "being yelled at for not knowing lines."

Olivia Newcomb: Olivia has been involved in band, student council, scholastic bowl, NHS, and many play and musical crews. "To the crew: Keep calm and flip the fence! To my parents: Thank you for not minding the fact that all my jeans are covered in paint!"

Oh, The Places You Will Go

Now everyone knows about senior year and how you are almost done, or so you thought. As we come closer to the end of high school we all have a choice to make. We were asked as children what we wanted to be, now as we have grown many of us have changed. The boy who wanted to be a firefighter now wants to be a teacher, or the girl who wanted to be a dancer now wants to work with animals, and who can forget the girl who wanted to be a princess. But now as we are reaching our graduation day, we are faced with that question again; we must decide if we want to go to college or straight into the work force or in the military. So here are a few seniors and what they have decided to do in their futures.

Black Hawk has been a big choice college amongst the CHS graduates. Along with Black Hawk some have chosen Carl Sandburg. Many say it is better to go to a junior college first. This will help you get your associates degree cheaper than going to a four year college or university.

Now say you want to go to college for one particular reason such as technology or theology. There are schools for the type of interest you may have. You can go to an art school or music school to help you go directly into your field of study.

Some people will go onto a four year university like the University of Illinois or Iowa State University. Going to a University right away will help you stay in the same school for your entire college life. You will also learn a lot of independence because you will have to live in the dorms.

You can also follow an apprenticeship. This will allow you to learn the skill for whatever job you want to get. Most of these include carpenters, electricians, or any other trade job. This is a really easy way to get a head start on building your own business with these trades.

Some people will also go into the work force right away. This is the way to go if you are in maybe a family business or you don't want to wait to earn money.

Some people will also decide to take a year off. People do this for many reasons but you shouldn't feel ashamed if you do. Some people need a little more time to figure out what they want to do with the rest of their lives. Some people want to travel while they are young and some just need a break. Another option you have is to enter the military. Joining any branch of the military is noble but isn't right for everyone. For those who choose to travel this path, they have worked hard and have waited for the day they could enlist.

No matter which way you choose to go just remember that you have options and make sure you make the best choice for you.

Senior Honors Night

Tonight we honor the best and brightest of the Class of 2017. Music, Athletics, Academics, and Scholarship are all honored. The plaques with their names will always grace the halls of CHS.

▲ NBA All-Star Kevin Durant surprised many when he chose to leave the Oklahoma City Thunder after eight seasons via free agency and sign with the Golden State Warriors.

◀ Netflix TV series "Stranger Things" told the story of a 12-year-old boy who disappeared from his Indiana town in the 1980s and the search to find him. The show became a viral hit with more than 14 million viewers in the first month.

While his opponent, Democrat Hillary Clinton, the first woman nominated by a major political party to run for president, received more popular votes, Trump won in the Electoral College, 304-227. He is the first non-military leader and non-politician to win the job.

Trump said it was time for Americans “to come together as one united people.” In her concession speech, Clinton said, “Donald Trump is going to be our president. We owe him an open mind and a chance to lead.” President Obama reminded Americans that we are “all on the same team.”

Trump, a Republican, was inaugurated on Jan. 20 and went to work with a Republican majority in both the House and Senate.

◀ After 108 years, it finally happened. The Chicago Cubs ended the longest championship drought in sports when they defeated the Cleveland Indians in seven games to win the 2016 World Series.

Naturally it wasn't easy, as the Cubs became just the sixth team in baseball history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit to do it. The seventh and final game dramatically went into extra innings, and through a rain delay, before Chicago clinched an 8-7 win.

The city of Chicago estimated that nearly five million fans swarmed into downtown Chicago two days later to attend the Cubs victory parade.

◀ The Women's March on Jan. 21 was a worldwide demonstration in support of women's rights and a variety of other causes, including health care reform and protection of the environment. The March began as an event in Washington, D.C., but companion events were held in cities worldwide and were estimated to involve nearly five million people.

This time the Tigers beat the Crimson Tide, 35-31, to win Clemson's first national title in 36 years. Quarterback Deshaun Watson was the hero, throwing for 420 yards and three touchdowns, including the game winner with one second left.

◀ Audiences flocked to theaters around the December holidays to see "Rogue One: A Star Wars Story."

The new stand-alone film was unique, as it was the first spin-off in the Star Wars series. It told the origin story of the Death Star, and the group of rebel spies who stole the plans to destroy it.

Brady was chosen the game's MVP after throwing for 466 yards, another Super Bowl record, and leading New England to 19 fourth-quarter points to tie the game. It was the fifth championship for Brady and coach Bill Belichick.

The heartbreaking loss for Atlanta prevented the Falcons from winning their first Super Bowl in team history.
