Pep Assembly, Bonfire, Parade, and Game Day!

During class competitions at the pep assembly the students competed in a drawing, with a twist. Some people were blind folded, some had to draw with their opposite hand, and some had to draw with their feet. There was also the famous shaving cream and cheetos toss. We had cash and carry with straws, and the traditional tug-of-war between the classes. During the Bonfire the seniors lit their candles and took their final homecoming walk into the dark gym. After a little competition between classes, the sports teams were introduced and then homecoming court was announced and the king and queen were crowned. With thunder storms rolling in, the court quickly went out and lit the fire to officially start homecoming weekend. Saturday brought the parade and the big game against the United Red Storm.

OPERATION PROM

Jorge Urbina and Kelsey Manasco

I went to an after PROM party
I remembered what you said.
You told me not to drink at all
So I had Sprite instead.

I really felt proud of myself
The way you said I would.
That I didn't choose to drink and drive
Even though the others said I should.

I know I did the right thing
Your advice to me was right.
Now the party is finally ending
Everyone is driving out of sight.

I got into my car
I knew I'd got home in one piece.
Never knowing what was coming,
Something I expected least

I started to drive away,
But as I pulled out into the road,
The other car didn't see me
And hit me like a heavy load.

As I lay there on the pavement
I hear the policeman say,
"The other driver is drunk,"
And now she's the one who will have to pay.

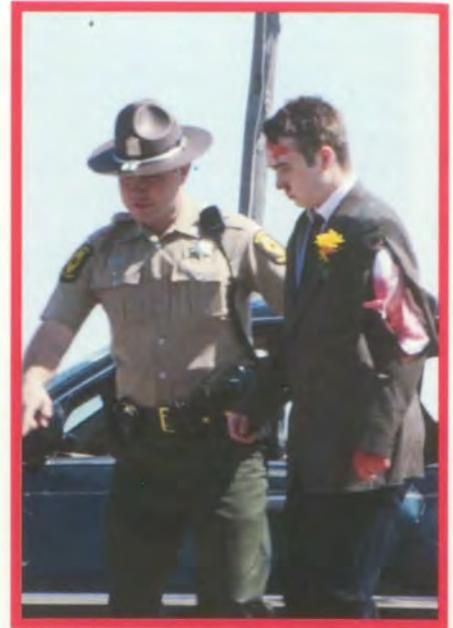

My blood is all around me
As I try hard not to cry.
I can hear the paramedic say
This girl is going to die.

I am sure the kid had no idea
While he was flying high
Because he chose to drink and drive
That I would have to die

Someone should have taught him
that it's wrong to drink and drive
Maybe if his mom and dad had,
I would still be alive.

My Breath is getting shorter,
I'm getting really scared
These are my final moments
And I am feeling so unprepared

Mom and dad I wish you could hold me
As I lie here and die
I wish that I could say one more time
I love you and goodbye

GOOD BYE

As my junior year quickly comes to an end, I would like to thank a lot of people for all of their work throughout the year. First I would like to thank Mrs. Anderson for all of her hard work and dedication to keeping the book at its best, even when some of us didn't want to work. I would also like to thank Mrs. Solberg for always being on the ball for everything, and always helping the yearbook staff when we needed it. I would also like to thank the community members who have supported us by providing pictures, purchasing sponsor ads and buying yearbooks. I would like to thank my yearbook staff and their parents for all the help and support with the fundraising we do. Also a huge thank you to my yearbook staff for helping me create a wonderful book. I really enjoyed watching the whole yearbook come together, from the first ideas on the way to summer training with Jim Straub. To the cover design with Michelle North. To the finished product. It is one of my favorite yearbooks to date.

To the students this year, thank you for buying the spring book and the high school book. I hope you enjoy it as much as I will. To the school administration and staff, thank you for letting the staff and me pop in and out of the classrooms to get the pictures we needed to complete the book. And thank you for all your helpful ideas along the way.

To the underclassmen, enjoy these years because before long, there will be major changes happening in your lives. My past three years have gone by so fast. Don't take things for granted. Keep working hard and don't forget to make some memories along the way.

To the seniors, I wish you the best of luck on the journey you have in front of you. I hope it holds success and happiness. Along with that, you will have a few life lessons and I hope you grow and learn from all of them. But no matter how far you go, don't ever forget where you came from.

Your high school yearbook editor,
Paige Wexell
