THE DEDICATION

Dedication

To the success of our yearbook, The Viking, in its maiden voyage and to the success of the Captains who will steer The Viking in future years we dedicate this book, with an earnest endeavor to set sail under favorable winds.

CAMBRIDGE HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. Clark, Janitor

The Cruise of Sea H. S.

All aboard! We're sailing! No, no, Freshie. Can't get by without a passport. How can you get one? Why, just go see Sophie More. She'll have you walk up a couple flights of stairs backwards, drive a baby buggy or a kiddy car, paint yourself up like a clown, crawl blindfolded through a barrel, and generally make a fool out of you.

Whoo, whoo! There goes the whistle! First class, second class, third class, fourth class passengers in your rooms. State-rooms L. A. T., down left, E.N.N. G., down right, M. A. T. H., down wrong, T. Y. P.E.E., down below. Lieutenant Teach, take charge.

A thick fog is settling over the ship. The students aren't able to see through it. It's way over their heads. It's slowly crushing them. Lieutenant Brainstorm to the rescue! He's lifting the fog.

Sailing, sailing, over the bounding main,
Happy days are here again,
The skies above are clear again,
Our thanks to you, Lieutenant
Brain----storm.

Everybody on deck. Man overboard! Dragged down by a book shark. Kick, my boy, kick! You have to kick hard to keep your head above the water. Oh, he's falling fast. I'm afraid he's a hopeless case. Lieutenant Science, you'll have to throw him a life preserver or he's sunk.

Hey, you deck boys! Back to your scrubbing and no loafing. Naughty, naughty, you'll learn not to shoot paper wads.

Assembly on deck! Everyone to his own deck chair. All right, girls. Just because the ship library is open to the public, it needn't turn into a bee-swarm. Ho-hum, ho-hum, ho-hum. The chairs may be comfortable, boys, but the snoring annoys us.

The semester is nearing its end. The sailing is getting pretty rough. The crew of The Viking is put to its test, and the majority weather the storm. The water calms again.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I have an important announcement to make. Mr. Junior Cast is presenting an excellent play entitled "Take My Advice". Now if you take my advice, you will not miss this splendid entertainment. It is the big event of the year.

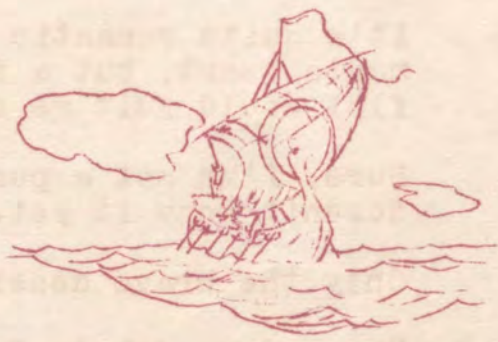

Ah, through my binoculars I see at long last the promised land. Our voyage across Sea H. S. is nearly over. The good old ship, Viking, has carried us through. "Mid shouts and music and a mad rush of social events we arrive at the Island of Intellect."

Patient--Doctor, are you sure this is pneumonia? Sometimes doctors prescribe for pneumonia and the patients die of something else.

M.D.--(with dignity) When I prescribe for pneumonia, you die of pneumonia.

"What does an old maid say at the end of her nightly prayers?"

"Ah, men!"

THE VIKINGS

Entranced by all the Viking folklore,
Thrilled by tales of sailing 'oer
A rough and bounding sea;
Wondering at the might of Thor, who
Guarded, helped those men of yore
Through many a storm where brawn
And oar did naught to still the sea.
Peering through the ages' veil, I saw
Set sail a bark so frail
I feared that it could never sail
Across the bounding sea.

Sailing 'oer the dipping billows, shimming
'Oer the shifting pillows
Of the sleepers of the deep;
Full eleven sturdy Norsemen, daring
Helmsman, brawny oarsmen,
Coursing forward, strove to open
Highways through the sea.
And the Norsemen, hearty, hale, swore
That they could never fail,
Crying boldly, "On to victory!"

Gallant galley bore them onward,
Dipping upward, dipping downward,
At the fierce waves' mercy solely
Mewing gulls their only consort,
Winds wild will their ruthless escort
Steered them to the long-sought port
And to victory!

Angry seas you can assail;
Courage, staunchness will avail,
O'er life's sea you, too, can sail
On to victory.

Debutante Chatter

Most girls at college begin by embracing their studies and end by studying their embraces.

It's quite romantic to have a place in a man's heart, but a furnished three-room flat would suit me much better.

Sure, I've got a purpose in life--but he doesn't know it yet.

Only the brave desert the fair.

The modern debutante isn't really so bad
she's more to be petted than scorned.

A Brief History of Cambridge School

Miss Sarah Frances Little taught the first school in Cambridge. Like everything else in the way of public gatherings in those days it was held in the court house. Miss West and Miss Allen were among the other teachers of an early day. In 1850 a building was erected, and it was sold to the Christian Church, when the old brick on College Square was put up. In 1857 there were two departments taught in the school, and the basement of the old M. E. Church was used for a school until the brick was completed. This was the first attempt at grading or dividing the schools.

The first principal was R. C. Raymond, afterwards a practicing physician, assisted by Miss Fanny Gould and Miss Lucy Brooks.

The next year, 1858, Henry P. Summer was principal. In 1859 Dr. Raymond was again principal. Then Mr. Thorpe, assisted by Miss Sarah B. Dunn. These remained until 1863, when Ira D. Hars-ten became principal, remaining until 1866. The building up to this time contained but two rooms.

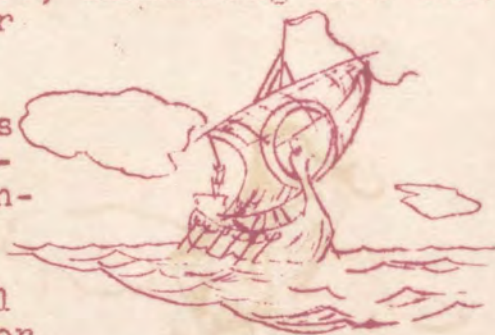

In 1866, B. F. Barge was secured as principal. Ten years afterward he was elected County Superintendent of Schools. He remained in charge until 1872. In 1868 a large frame building was built. This added two departments to the school. When Mr. Barge retired, C. I. Gruen was placed in charge. The high school course of study was established by Mr. Gruen in 1873. The first graduate was in 1875. In 1876 the building was remodeled, and three new wings were added. Following Mr. Gruen, F. A. Hyde served as superintendent for four years, 1880 to 1884.

A. G. Smith became superintendent in the fall of 1884. In 1885 the school was not conducted upon the graded plan. There was one general study hall in constant charge of one teacher, and from this the pupils went to their respective rooms for recitation. This system continued until 1888, when F. W. White became superintendent. Mr. White was here two years, 1887 to 1889, when he went to Galva.

Mr. Gruen was again superintendent during the year 1889-1890. When Mr. Gruen retired for the second time, W. C. Harding took his place, and was superintendent until 1892. From 1892-1894, Laura J. Haggart was in charge of the school, with Sue Douglas as high school principal. Miss Haggart was a quiet, unassuming and able teacher who had a personal interest in her pupils.

In the fall of 1894, Mr. E. E. Jones was secured as superintendent. Mr. Jones raised the standard of the school and increased the attendance. He aroused an interest in athletics, and had one of the best football teams in this part of the state. He also organized a High School Orchestra and helped in all movements for the general good of the community.

During the year 1900-1901, A. J. Magee was superintendent, and from 1901-1902, J. W. Cradler held that position. The next two years, 1902-1904, Edward G. Maul was superintendent. The first Senior Class Play was then given, and class memorials were originated.

In the fall of 1904 J. M. Markel accepted the position of superintendent of Cambridge schools. The first eighth grade graduation was held during his administration. "Patron's Day" was also originated, and laboratory work in zoology was begun. It was during this administration that the first Junior reception was given.

In 1906 the new high school building was started. It was dedicated on May 10, 1907.

Prof. T. F. McCammarrah was superintendent from 1909-1912. He instigated the half year promotion plan in 1910 and it was continued until 1915. Prof. H. M. Hinkle was superintendent from 1912-1917. C. C. Foley served for one year, 1917-1918. Charles McMullen followed him in the years 1918-1924. Harley N. Rohm became principal in 1924 and holds this position at the present time. During his administration the commercial department was added to our high school. In 1928 the gymnasium was converted into a commercial classroom. The Armory Hall was used as a gym until 1936, when the Community Hall was completed. The High School uses it for basket-ball games, parties, and other activities.

Condensed from The Pennant, 1917

Captain: The chicken soup wasn't good. I told the cook how to fix it. Maybe he didn't catch the idea.

Private: I think it was the chicken he didn't catch.

"Are you an early riser?"

"An early riser? Why I get up so early that if I went to bed a little later I'd meet myself getting up in the morning.

The Outskirts

Lady: I want a dress to wear around the house.

Clerk: How big is the house?

"You look flustered."

"I am. My girl threw me over."

"Why worry. There's plenty more."

"Yes, but this one threw me over that cliff!"

"Don't you love old ruins?"

"Yes, if they have plenty of money."

"I just shot a dog."

"Was he mad?"

"Well, he wasn't pleased."

Patient: "Tell me the worst!"

Doctor: "No, I'll send you your bill."

"My house is without a flaw.

"Gee, what do you walk on?"

Jokes---

Mr. Rohm had hired Sambo to paint his shed at the stipulated price of $2.50. Reappearing on the scene some time later, he found Sambo lying in the shade enjoying himself while another Negro was busy painting.

"How is this, Sambo?" asked Mr. Rohm. "I thought I hired you for that job."

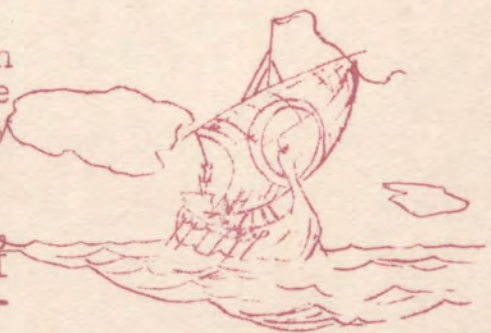

"Yes, suh, Mr. Rohm, Ah knows you did, but Ah done sublet the contract for $3."

"But," remonstrated Mr. Rohm, "I pay you only $2.50, so you are losing money on this job."

"Yes, suh, he's, suh. Ah knows Ah is," was the reply. "But it's worth somethin' to be boss."

Big-Game Hunter: "Oh, yes, I've been pursued by lions many times, but life without a little risk would be very tame."

Little Man: "I agree! Many times, when the weather has seemed doubtful, I have deliberately gone without my umbrella."--Monitor.

ANNO DOMINI 1500

Curriculum

Cambridge High School is a four year high school accredited and recognized by the State Department of Education, the University of Illinois, and the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

A graduate of Cambridge High School who has the required credits is privileged to enter any institution of higher education within the North Central States without entrance examinations. This privilege is extended throughout practically the entire United States through the recognition of the North Central States by other accrediting associations.

Graduates of Cambridge High have the assurance that their high school diplomas will be acceptable by the State Boards having to do with the granting of certificates for the various professions of medicine, dentistry, law, and others. In states where a diploma from an approved high school is required for the obtaining of a teacher's certificate, graduates of Cambridge High School will meet such a law.

Included in the Cambridge High School curriculum are the following academic subjects:

English.	four years
Mathematics.	three years
(Algebra, one and one-half years; geometry one and one-half years)
Science.	three years
(general science, one year; Biology, one year; physics, one year)
Social Studies	three years
(One-half years (History, two years; economics, one-half year; civics one-half year; commercial geography, one-half year)
Latin.	two years

For those who wish to go on to college after graduation there is a complete college preparatory schedule. For those who wish a more general or commercial course, there are subjects that may be of more benefit for their particular calling.

Our school is to be congratulated on the excellent teaching staff that has been secured. All the teachers are extremely well qualified for their positions. Miss Westerland, our English instructor, Miss Grace Hoadley, teacher of Latin and history and Miss Raveill, commercial instructor, have all been with us for several years. Mr. Rohm, Superintendent of Cambridge High School, has done his utmost to make this school the success that it is. Last year saw the appearance of Mr. Laroy Zell as Science instructor and Mr. Raymond Johnson as Mathematics teacher and coach. This year saw the introduction of Miss Delora Whisnant as music and Art teacher. Art was introduced at Cambridge High for the first time for several years and has been met with much enthusiasm.

This year the health program has been greatly improved. Smallpox vaccination and Diphtheria immunization were nation and Diphtheria immunization were sponsored by the Woman's Club. Physical examinations of high school athletes were also made possible by the action of the Board of Education. The program adopted by the school board for the past year called for the following two things:

1. The keeping of a weight-height-age chart for each child in the first eight grades.

2. A physical and dental examination for each child in the first and fifth grades at no expense to the individuals.

Despite the fact that Cambridge High is not large, it ranks high with the courses offered.

Judge: "It is the sentence of this court that the prisoner be confined to prison for the remainder of his natural life."

Prisoner: "This is a rank injustice----"

Judge: "Silence! Two more years for contempt of court!"

"Tell me, sir. Who was braver than Lancelot, wiser than Socrates, more honest than Lincoln, wittier than Mark Twain, and more handsome than A.ollo?"

"My wife's first husband."

"Where did you get all that money?"

"Borrowed it from Wilson."

"But I thought he was pretty tight."

"So he was."

"Some dames are terrible. My sweetheart doesn't know what she wants."

"You're lucky. Mine does."

"Is it true that Label has a secret sorrow?"

"Yes! Hasn't she told you about it."

Curt: "There are twenty girls in my class, but I've never kissed one of them."

Bob: "Which one is that?"

A guest of the Cambridge Hotel was awakened early one morning by a knock on his door.

"What is it?" he called drowsily, without getting up.

"A telegram, sir," responded Hazel.

"Well you can shove it under the door, can't you, without waking me up so early?"

"No, sir," Hazel answered, "its on a tray."

Mr. Neison: "Bill, I wish you wouldn't whistle at your work."

Bill: "I wasn't working, dad."

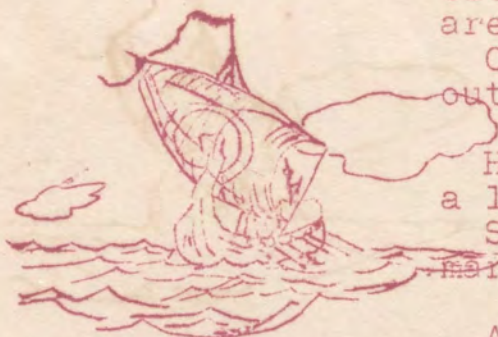

Father: "Son, can't you cut a bit on your college expenses? You know, you are almost ruining the family."

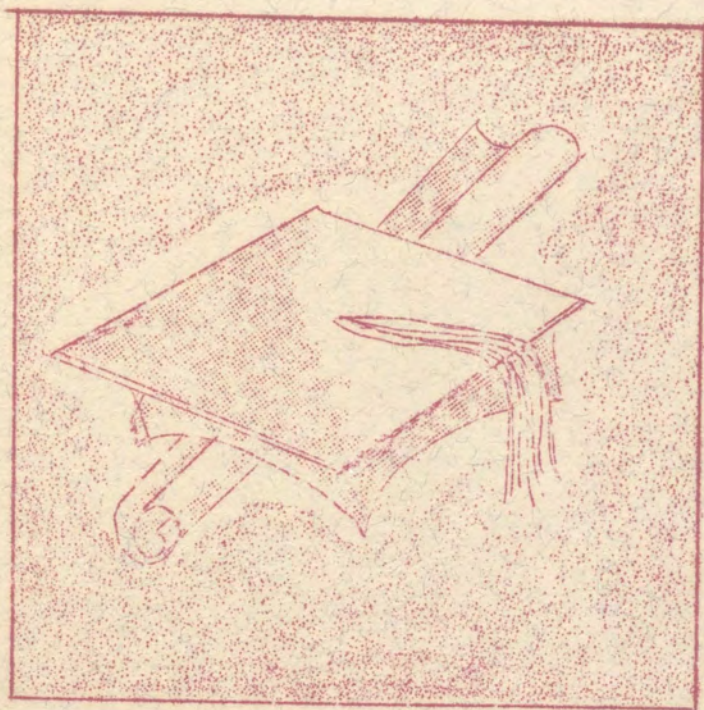

Calvin: "Well, I might possibly do without any books."

He: "No, I don't want to get married for a long time."

She: "Who said anything about getting married for a long time?"

Any girl would rather be looked over than overlooked. (ain't it the truth)!

Autobiography

Class Officers:

President-----Sam German
Vice President-----Robertta McConnell
Secretary and Treasurer--Mildred Danielson

In the year 1935, we, the seniors, started to high school with a class of thirty eight members. The second week of school we chose our class motto, "Sail On," our class flower, the sweet pea, and our class colors, royal blue and silver, all of which we have retained in our four years of high school and which we will use for graduation in the spring.

We managed to get along in the freshman class even though we were reminded quite frequently that "green" freshmen weren't supposed to know anything.

The sophomore year came, and we looked forward to initiating the freshmen, except that Calvin seemed to think he would have done better if he hadn't had to play baseball that afternoon. Anyhow the freshmen all came out together.

Last year occurred the class play, "Mountain Mumps," which was excellent. Mumps weren't contagious then, but it seems that January 16, 1939, there was quite an epidemic. The biggest event of 1938 was the Junior-Senior Prom when all the girls came out in their long formals. This is an occasion when they feel quite grown up beside the boys in their new Easter suits. Everyone had a lovely time!

Now in our senior year most of us feel quite dignified, but our regrets are that we have no further to go in dear old C. H. S. Next year means that we are out "on our own." Most of us are making plans for the future. Some are going to college, some into nurses' training, some to beauty school, etc.

But in the offing, however, is the Prom which we anticipate with delight, probably because it will be our last one.

Her Father: "I guess you must think I'm pretty hard to please."

Her Suitor: "Oh, no, I've seen your wife."

He: "I'll lend you five dollars if you don't keep it too long."

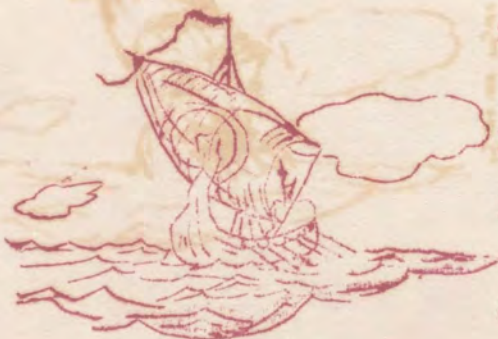

She: "I'll spend it right away."

Poet: "Should I stop writing poetry?"

Editor: "No--begin!"

"How is your best girl?"

"Oh, they're doing fine."

Teacher (pointing to a deer at the zoo)--Johnny, what is that?

Johnny-I don't know.

Teacher-What does your mother call your father?

Johnny-Don't tell me that's a louse!

Glenn Weisser--If study makes a man, I'm a future Einstein.

Pearl Wexell--Bethink thee now on her virtues.

Barbara Larson--It is better to be small and shine than to be

A BLOW TO HER

While standing in a street car, little Jimmie kept sniffing and rubbing his nose.

A lady near him said, "Haven't you got a handkerchief, sonny?

"Yessum, but I don't lend it to strangers."

TOO MANY

She: Mr. Jones' wife has fifteen hats this season and I only have two. It's ridiculous!

He: It sure is! What on earth do two women want with seventeen hats,

THE OUTSKIRTS

Lady: I want a dress to wear around the house.

Clerk: How big is the house?

Hard to bite

Newly: What is this lump in the cake?

Wed: Dearest, it's cottage pudding and that must be a bit of the foundation.

FINE

Judge? What's the idea of parking front of a fire plug?

Lady Driver: Because the sign said "Fine
For Parking."

BEAN

Soldier (running): Captain, the enemy are as thick as peas.

Captain: Well! shell them.

TAKE MY ADVICE

The main character part is that of Bob Mannion, editor of the "Eureka News". The live-wire of the play is Jimmy Samson whose business is waking up towns. Jud Fenton is the town character who has scruples against working, and John Wargrim is the "power" of the state.

The touch of romance in the play is given by the part of Peggy Acton, a newcomer in town. Lending to the female atmosphere are two bright young things, Virgy Mannion, Bob's snappy sister, Marcia Wargrim, daughter of the "power"; and Mrs. Nelson-Dodd, a would be social power in Eureka and president of the uplift society.

Mary Anderson

Slender sandy-haired, "Red" is quiet and retiring but liked nevertheless.

Irene Binge

Irene is one of our students from the east in Burns Township and even at that she is never late.

Margaret Boberg

"Maggie" likes Geneseo. Ah, but such is life.

Florence Carlson

"Flossie" is blonde and quiet. Quiet! did I say? That is, until you learn to know her.

Olive Belle Carlson

"Swede" She's the tallest girl in the class, but the boys are taller; so they don't mind.

Pearl E. Charlet

Pearl has talents, and with an I. Q. of 130, do you think she will make good? I ask you.

Ruby E. Danielson

"Red" is a blonde, believe it or not. But just look at her initials. R. E. D.

Mary Jeanette Drehman

"M. J. D." is slender and athletic-minded.

Lois E. Ellenwood

"Ellie" is peppy and happy. What is she talking about? (About all the time)

Richard Frisk

"Dick" is a great kid (er) but perfectly harmless. He is a real tonic for dejected spirits.

Margaret Farmer---"Margo" entered our school late in February. We think she's cute, don't you?

Robert Garrison

"Bob" is "air-minded" and we don't mean light-minded. He spends most of his spare time fooling with airplanes.

Elizabeth Gilmore

"Betty" is quiet, but she's a good art student.

Gloria Gustus

"Chubby" is one of the girls that keeps our class moving. She finds all the scandal for the sophomore class.

Virginia Hultgren

"Ginny" seems to have neglected eating her oatmeal every morning, but despite her size she's been quite a sizable portion of the class.

Kenneth Lamb

Someday "Jack's" theme song will probably be "Listen to the Lambs" Yes, he's heard it. He studies music under Miss Whisnant.

Vincent Leander

In what year did he swim the Hëllespont? Really, we've never asked him.

John Leary

"Tex" has the curliest hair. Do we have to go to Texas to get some like it?

Henrietta Jean Lund

"Etta Jean" thinks boys are the silliest "things" "You lie" I cry.

Geraldine McConnell

"Jerry" is quiet and unassuming and quite a pal.

Jean McMullen

Jean is a sweet, blue-eyed blonde. Is she Swedish? No, strange as it may seem.

Marguerite Melin

"Peggy" was voted the most popular and the best looking girl in the class. Double trouble!

Althea Nash

"Suzy" is found every Saturday night working in the drugstore. She doesn't walk home alone either.

Raymond Nye

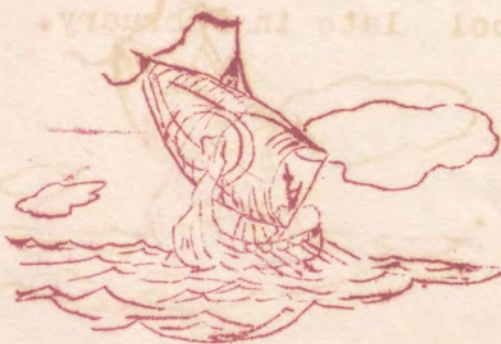

"Ray" has his own car. The rattle of that decorated model "A" is always recognizable.

Jay Sheridan

Perhaps Jay will be a carpenter someday. He made a good model of an eighteenth century loom for English.

John Sherrard

"Jack" is tiny, but he's a favorite with the ladies. Incidentally, he's the vice president.

Evelyn Snow

"Ev" when is it going to sleet? She doesn't know. 'Sfunny.

Berwyn Stach

I'd just bet that some day Berwyn will have "Stacks and stacks" of money.

Gene Stephens

According to a teacher, "Pete" has a "profound propensity for procrastination."

Gloria Stephens

Gloria always seems more interested in boys out of C. H. S. They really are nice fellows, Gloria.

Richard Stewart

He's tall, dark, and ?, but sometimes he just pesters you to death.

John Telleen

He was voted the most studious boy in the class. He's our president and pal, too.

Betty Jane Thorp

She is one of our best athletes. In Physical Education she's the only girl who can sink more than one basket.

Richard Walline

He's the only boy in the class who wears glasses. Thank heaven, they're not horn-rimmed!

Harry White

"Bub" was voted the best looking boy in the class, but do you suppose he'll ever get over his bashfulness?

Dale Yarter

Dale is "full of the dickens." But his sins will catch up with him. The mumps did.

Father: Son, when George Washington was your age he was a surveyor.

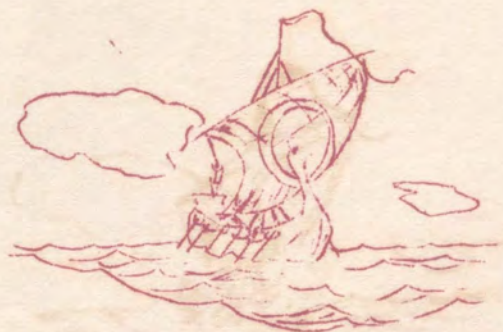

Charles H: Yes, dad, but when he was your age he was president.

"Do you believe in dreams?"

"I used to, but I don't any more."

"And why not?"

"I married one five years ago."

Autobiography

Class Officers

President-----John Telleen
Vice President-----Jack Sherrard
Secretary & Treasurer---Althea Nash

In October, 1937, the then Sophomores showed us "What was what" in the annual freshmen-sophomore initiation. Although there were about forty two freshmen at that time and a considerably smaller number of sophomores, they did the job rather well. Our class did not remain this large very long, for we are now only thirty--seven and that includes one or two that have joined us lately. Entering school as freshman, we soon learned to chew gum, to shoot paper wads, to whisper, and all other traits of high school pupils.

We had several sleighing parties with the coming of snow. During April we gave an assembly program, the high light of which was entitled "The Man on the Street." At the close of the year we shared a picnic with sophomores at Lake Storey in Galesburg.

Beginning school in the fall, we felt more grown up and ready to swing into the customs again. The first activity was to plan for the initiation of the freshmen. This we did and are able to say we paid back what we received the year before. In November there was an addition to our class when John Leary, a Chicagoan, entered the class.

We kept the colors, scarlet and silver, the motto, "Climbing Upward", and the flower, Lily of the Valley, from the eighth grade.

Happy Day

Maid: "Madam, master is lying unconscious in the hall with a piece of paper in his hand and a large box by his side."
Mrs. Green (joyously): "OH, my new hat has arrived!"---Vancouver province.

Saving Her Kisses

Old-Fashioned Girl: "All my life I've been saving my kisses for a man like you."
Modern Young Man: "Well, prepare to lose the savings of a lifetime."

Usual

"The Weavers next door are quiet tonight. Is there anything wrong?"

"No; they're always like that. When he proposed, he just held up a diamond ring and said 'Eh?' and she looked at it and said 'Uh-huh.'"---Pathfinder

"I'm awfully light on my feet."
"How about other people's?"

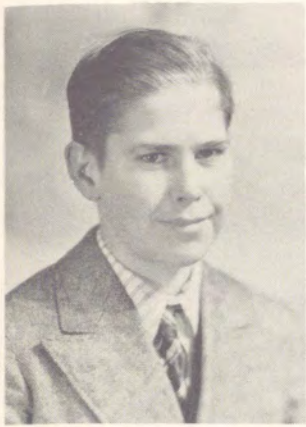

"Even the best of freinds fall out," the airman explained when he strapped in a passenger.

ATHLETES

BASE BALL 1938-1939

With seven men returning from last year's Championship aggregation, Coach Johnson managed to turn out another undefeated team in 1938.

The mighty Vikings opened the season by defeating Orion, 4 to 0. Stephens, our star south-paw, nearly joined the hall of fame when he pitched no-hit ball for 6 innings, only to have Anderson spoil the day with a scratch single over short.

Cambridge then went to Alpha and knocked them all over the lot for a 19 to 1 victory. Stephens continued his winning way with another one-hit game. This one hit was a home run by Frennell.

In the third game scheduled, Andover rather than play forfeited it, thus giving Cambridge three victories in as many starts.

Woodhull came to town and Johnson started his reserves. It soon became evident that the regulars were going to have to go in and win the game, as Woodhull had the benefit of a three run lead. The first team went in the fifth and pushed across five runs to bring home the bacon again.

Andover then forfeited again, and the Johnson lads were rained out at Woodhull.

The Vikings then went to Alpha and received full revenge for the only defeat handed them in four years of play. This defeat took place in 1934, when Alpha beat Cambridge for the last time 19 to 3. In 1938, however, they took the Miners into camp to the tune of 17 and 1 for a score.

This season marked a fitting close for eight seniors, who played their last baseball game for C. H. S. that evening in Alpha. In the final totals, Cambridge had a total of 53 runs to the oppositions 8. The average runs per game were 10.6 for C.H.S. and 1.6 for oppositions. Stephens was the leading pitcher, having won all of the Cambridge games. Veith was the leading hitter, having an average of .533, he was closely followed by Hultman, with .539 and Dale German, with an even .500.

The lettermen and their batting averages were as follows:

Calvin Veith-----	533
June Hultman-----	539
Dale German-----	500
Max Johnson-----	428
Dale Stephens-----	428
Gene Brod-----	333
Chester Flood-----	305
Sam German-----	238
Harry White-----	222
Richard Frisk-----	166
Jim Gustafson-----	100

BASKETBALL 1938-1939

The past Basketball season was in one way, successful and in another, a failure. Coach Johnson opened practice with five lettermen forming the nucleus of the squad.

The Vikings opened the season at Anawan, and in spite of two Corrigan baskets, we won the game, 34-28.

Orion then came to town, and the sharpshooting Mercermen led by Dick Johnson ace forward who handed the Vikings their worst defeat of the season. As the gun sounded, Orion led 32-18.

The C. H. S. boys next visited Alpha and lost their second straight game, this time by a 22-20 margin. Cambridge lost this game because of ineffectiveness at the free throw line.

Galva came to Cambridge for their first time in many years and was handed a 24-19 defeat. The Wildcats were stubborn, but the Vikings were not to be denied.

Cambridge then went to Wethersfield and won the hardest fought game of the year, 22-17. Calvin Veith will particularly remember this game, for as a result of a blow by one of the high-flying Geese, he lost three front teeth.

The Vikings then traveled to Prophestown and were defeated 24 to 23. After being behind 10 to 1 at the first quarter, Cambridge gained a four point lead with two minutes to go. This lead was erased by two baskets by Romans and a free throw by Randal.

In the first of two games with Geneseo, Cambridge beat the Wheelers 26-23. The Johnson boys were behind until the last minute of play when they got three quick baskets while holding Geneseo scoreless.

During the Christmas holidays Cambridge entered the Geneseo Invitational Tournament. They drew Mineral for their first game and beat them hardily 26-14. In their next game they didn't fare so well, being defeated by Erie 28-31. It was some consolation however, to note that Erie went on to win the Tournament.

Geneseo's Wheelers came to town and the C. H. S. boys really got hot. They won, going away 51 to 19. This is without a doubt the worst beating Cambridge has handed Geneseo in many years.

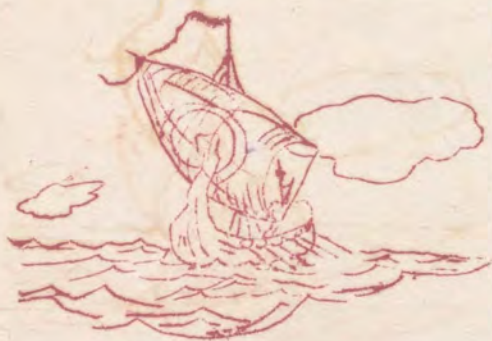

Stephens and Veith hit the rim for 27 points between them, Dale getting 15 and Cal, 12.

Cambridge again hit their stride against Wyoming and trounced them 42-19. This marked the high spot of the team's work for the year.

Alpha next came to the house of the Vikings and took them 38-35. Again it was the old failing, free throws, that beat them, Max Plunkett, Alpha forward hit for 20 points to tear down the Vikings.

The crowning achievement of the year came on January 6, 1939. The Vikings traveled to Kewanee and beat the Boiler makers 24 to 17. Early in the second quarter Flood was chased from the game on a double foul. This excited the Johnson men to such extent that their aggressiveness stunned Kewanee and finally beat them. Max Johnson garnered 10 points to lead the Vikings to a glorious victory.

Cambridge played their second Kewanee team in a week and skinned out a 17-17 victory. Two tight game defences held down the score and detracted from the interest of the game.

The next opponent was Galva, and the Vikings were trounced 38 to 30. The Roman coached men gained a 27 to 12 lead at the half. Veith, out the first half because of illness, spared a last half attack that just fell short. Nelson led this futile rally with 10 points.

The nemesis of the Vikings, Orion, came to Cambridge and again came out on the long end of a 26-17 score. Johnson, Raisbeck, and Coulter led the Mercermen.

In the last game of the scheduled season, Cambridge resumed its winning way and beat Bradford 36-16. This game was Cambridge all the way, for it gave revenge for the close game at Bradford.

This event closed the regular seasons with a total of 11 games won and 3 lost.

On February 22, Cambridge entered the District Basketball Tournament at Sheffield. They were beaten by Annawan in their first game 18-16. Perhaps the only thing that can account for the Vikings' defeat by a weaker team was over confidence, although the small floor was somewhat of a handicap too.

Below are listed all the standings for the entire season of C. H. F. basketball:

"What do you mean, a poem?" exclaimed the struggling young author. That dress is two poems and a short story."

ANNUAL STAFF

In December a year-book committee was chosen by Mr. Rohm. This group consisted of three representatives from each class. The members of this committee planned the annual and elected the various department heads. All the original class representatives were chosen to be charimen of departments.

The Viking was selected as a name for the book. The Viking is also used for the theme this year. The editor of the school paper was honored with the same position on the annual staff. As this is the first year book in several years, the staff has had a good deal of work to do before the book could be successfully published.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is composed of ninety-three members: fifty-six girls and thirty-seven boys. This group is directed by Miss De Lora Whisnant. The officers of the organization are:

President----Lenore Sherrard
Librarian--Roberta McConnell

From the club, smaller singing groups have been chosen. We have a boys' double quartette and a girls' double sextette. These people sing at various gatherings and entertainments in the community.

Pupils who meet certain requirements will be allowed to join in the music festival at the Geneseo Township High School on April 26, 1939. We hope to have a smaller festival or concert of our own later in the spring.

THE PEP-IT-UP CLUB

The Pep-It-Up Club is an organization of high school girls. The adviser of the club is Miss Grace Hoadley. The following girls are the club's officers:

President-----Doris Lewis
Vice President-----Jean Warner
Secretary and Treasurer-Peggy Melin

The chief purpose of the club is to promote school activities. Several times each year the club is hostess to the students and faculty at parties. At home basket ball games the members sell candy and Coco Cola. Also each year a bake sale is held.

THE MAROON AND WHITE

"What's an appropriate gift for a telephone operator?"

"Why not give her some earrings."

"What did you say when you proposed to Jane?"

"I told her the truth. I said: 'I am nothing, I have nothing, and I can do nothing.'"

"What did she do?"

"Nothing."

"Her husband was a judge, wasn't he?"

"Everybody thought so till he married her."

Some gulls were following a ferry boat.

An Irishman said: "Nice flock of pigeons."

A tourist insisted: "Those are gulls."

"Well," said the Irishman, "gulls or boys, they're a fine flock of pigeons."

"Would you be a bigamist if there were no law against it?"

"Would I! I'd just love two."

"Confound you," roared the colonel, "Why don't you be more careful?"

"What do you mean, sir?" faltered the Army clerk.

"Why, instead of addressing this letter to the Intelligence Office, you have addressed it to the Intelligent Officer. You ought to know there's no such person in the Army."

Pearl C.: "This is the landscape I wanted you to suggest a title for."

Phillip A.: "Why not call it 'home'?"

Pearl C.: "Home? Why?"

Phillip: "Because there is no place like it."

"Your car is at the door."

"Yes I hear it knocking."

James was about to leave his girl's home when he was confronted by the massive figure of his prospective father-in-law.

The youth tried hard to evade him, but the girl's father grasped him by the shoulder.

"Now then, my lad," he said, "you've been coming here quite a lot. What do you want with my daughter?"

"Well sir," said James a trifle nervously, "you know best what you can afford."

JUDGE: "I notice that in addition to stealing this money you took a quantity of valuable jewelry."

PRISONER: "Yes, sir; I was always taught that money alone does not bring happiness."

"Why did you break off your engagement with Jane?"

"She wanted to get married."

Mother: "What happened when that high-pressure salesman called today?"

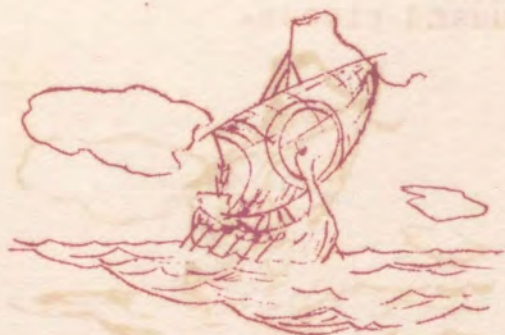

Daughter: "Oh, I sold him father's old clothes and all the discarded furniture in the attic."

Mr. Zell: Are there any other brain foods besides fish?"

Charley G.: Well, there's noodle soup.

"I met pretty girls in Cuba."

"Havana luck?"

HUMOR

Everyone likes a little humor now and then. Our school is not a "dead" school, but one filled with fun-loving pupils and teachers. Of course the timid and not-so-timid freshmen are the most humorous pupils in high school. In this youngest class there 26 wits. Each freshmen is a half-wit.

One day in algebra Charles Fransene said to Coach Johnson, "I think my problems are wrong, I forgot to put down the answers."

The annual initiation of the freshmen was a gala event. On this fair night they were even more comical than usual.

In music class we were singing a song with the word men in it. Miss Whisnant said, "Don't you sopranos know how long you should hold men?"

Visitor in school: Are you a senior, young man?

Francis Osborner: No, sir, I'm a freshman.

V. In S.: Oh, I didn't think a shirt could get that dirty in one year.

Mr. Zell in physics class: Albert, can you define a vacuum?

Albert: Uh-h-h-h-h, I have it in my head, but I just can't get it out.

When our superintendent reprimands someone for playing around, he can say, "I fiddled while Rome burned."

Willie fell down the elevator

Wasn't found till six days later.

Then the neighbors sniffed, "Gee, whiz,

What a spoiled child Willie is.

Mrs. Johnson: I want to do some shopping today if the weather is favorable. What does the paper say?

Coach: Rain, hail, thunder, and lightning.

A tramp stopped at Chet's house one day and asked for something to eat.

Chet answered, "My good man, I have to split that wood in the coal house, and if you do the job, I'll give you a good meal.

In a short time the tramp returned and all the wood except one tough old stump had been split.

Chet gave him his meal and then inquired as to how he had finished so quickly.

"It was easy," replied the tramp. "I just told funny stories, and the logs split themselves."

In the middle of the night Chet heard an awful commotion in the wood shed. He hastened out and found the old log split into a thousand pieces.

"This match won't light."

"Washna madda with it?"

"I dunno--- it worked all right a minute ago."

Homer Lee: How do you spell "sense?"

Miss Westerlund: Dollars and cents or horse sense?

H.L.: Well, like in, "I haven't seen him sence."

Alumni

Each year graduates have sailed from the port of C. H. S. into different channels of life until now the number totals 878. For the convenience of those who have sailed, we are publishing a complete Alumni directory in the hope that old friendships may be renewed and old shipmates remembered.

The Alumni Association was organized in April, 1895, by Professor E. E. Jones. A banquet has been held each succeeding year and the new graduates welcomed.

We appreciate the kind cooperation of the Alumni secretary, Miss Cecil Grammer, and all of the individuals who helped us to compile this information.
