This year the Junior Class has been out working harder than ever with the class float, supper, play, and prom. This year we were second in the carnival and hopefully, next year we will be number one.

Helping to direct the play were Mrs. Lundblad, Mr. McAvoy, and Diana Morey, our student director.

The class had been working hard all year toward prom, and when it got here, it made it all seem worthwhile. But mainly, we were just struggling through the year and looking forward to the next.

Now that the class of 73 has finished their sophomore year at C.H.S., they are in the full swing of High School life. They organized a supper and a workday to raise money for the Viking Carnival. Much money was brought in but not enough to elect our candidates, Mike Hall and Cynthia Lundell, king and queen. A lot of time and hard work was put into their Homecoming float. In spite of all this, they tied for second place with the seniors. Their junior year should prove even more exciting.

"Kendall--control yourself!"

FRESH-

This year the freshmen class of 1970-71 school year achieved quite a bit, which is very remarkable for our class. To start the year off with a BOOM, we were very successful in our money-making projects such as our work day and barbecue supper. We worked very hard with Mr. and Mrs. Arcand, and Mr. and Mrs. Baylor to win first prizes for the Homecoming float, and Viking Carnival King and Queen.

We thank our parents and sponsors for making our first year in high school a liveable one.

Forty-five members of mixed chorus under the direction of Mrs. Adelle Bayless participated in many varied activities during 1970-1971. After a combined Christmas Concert with the band, preparation for state music competition began. Girls' Chorus and one of the girls' ensemble was fortunate this year to receive a superior rating. Mixed Chorus and a girls ensemble received an excellent. The Cornbelt Conference Choral Festival was held at Orion High School on May 4. Sten Halfbarson of West Senior High, Aurora, Illinois was the guest conductor. This year the Music Boosters presented a program featuring The Old Gold Singers from the University of Iowa. Proceeds went to purchase a tape recorder for the Music Department. The annual Spring Band and Choral Concert was held in the gym on May 2. During the year, groups from mixed chorus presented programs and sang for various women's organizations, Holy Week Services, and at the Coffeehouse in Geneseo.

In dire need of money, we decided to sell Cambridge sweaters. We finished the year off with Student Council Week when students wore white socks, crazy hats, and other things teachers don't like in observance of this week. Elections for cheerleaders and Student Council members were also held this week.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

"Future Farmers of America involved in America's Future," was the 1970-1971 F.F.A. theme. The F.F.A. is dedicated to the development of young men and women in their preparation for a future in agricultural occupations.

Our chapter has tried to develop our members' ability by competing in various contests, such as livestock judging and public speaking.

Each year we have at least two members who receive the highest degree in the state--the State Farmer degree. Only two per cent of the state membership receives this award.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization that tries to prepare girls for the role of the modern homemaker. Mrs. Susan Woitel is the sponsor of this organization. She helps a lot to make our organization an active one.

All year the F.H.A. members have worked hard on activities, such as a needy family drive, Daddy Date Night, a bake sale, carnival food stand, Sadie Hawkins Dance, F.H.A. Week, and Mother-Daughter Banquet. Many of the girls helped decorate for the Sweetheart Ball which the F.H.A. co-sponsors with the F.F.A. Everyone was anxious to work hard this year to get enough points to go on the trip to Chicago in the spring.

The Future Nurses of America is a club designed for those interested in health careers.

A basic background is provided to acquaint the members with the opportunities available in nursing and other health professions.

This year the club traveled to Galesburg to visit the Carl Sandburg School of Nursing and the Galesburg Research Hospital. The members were informed of the qualifications needed for nursing. At Christmas, the club prepared boxes of candy and took them to the people at the local nursing home.

The meetings are usually held monthly under the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Dahlberg, the school nurse.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is designed to teach students the system of filing books in the library. These students have many responsibilities such as working at the charge desk, checking the reference room, and returning books to the shelves. For the last three years, Library Club has been open to anyone with an interest in the duties and responsibilities of a librarian. Our main activity this year was baking cookies at Christmas to take to the hospital in Geneseo.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club spent the 1970-1971 school year reviving itself. Our membership was greatly increased, and we had very good attendance at the two main activities, a sledding party at the Valley View Country Club in January and eating out in the spring.

The purpose of this club is to promote interest in the customs of Spanish-speaking countries. A student must be enrolled in or must have previously studied Spanish for a year before becoming a member of this club.

G A A

The 1970-71 school-year as a fun-filled exciting one for the GAA. Among the many sports we played were; archery, football, hockey, volleyball, soccer, basketball, and softball. In our basketball tournament the sophomores won 1st, juniors 2nd, seniors 3rd and the freshman 4th. We attended play days in Orion, Annawan, and Champaign-Urbana and we had our own volleyball-play day. We went to the YMCA in Kewanee and topped off the year with our GAA awards picnic in May.

The main goal of the Viking Staff is to turn out a unique and memorable school yearbook. The staff worked long tiring hours to finish before the deadlines.

The newest change in the 1970-1971 school yearbook is the individual class pictures. Also there were smaller group pictures taken to show what the clubs do throughout the year.

The staff consisted of Co-Editors Bonnie Keeney and Roger Scott; Debbie Clifford, Copy Editor; Debbie Anderson, Asst. Copy Editors; Paul Hultgren, Business Manager; Diane Morey, Junior Editor; Roger Gradert, Marcy VanDyke, Fred Clifford, and Kevin Cox, Photographers. The typists were Glenna Arndt and Connie Fransene.

The Viking Staff hard at work as usual!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are so many people we'd like to thank that it's impossible to get them in this little space. Some of these people are; Mrs. Ruth Lundblad, our fantastic advisor; Mr. Michael Gardner, our American Yearbook representative; and Mr. William Schultz, our professional photographer. We'd also like to thank the office of the Cambridge Chronicle for their generous donation of pictures.

It sometimes got to be a drudge to come very Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday to work on the annual but now as we look back, we're glad we did, as the entire staff feels it's one of the best Vikings.

This year's Pep Club strongly supported their Viking teams. Whether the teams were winning or losing, the club let the team know that they were behind them all the way. Each week posters were made to increase the school spirit for the coming game.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This year's Varsity cheerleaders really helped pep up the C.H.S. spirit. During the homecoming activities, they sold spirit tags and spirit flowers. While basketball season was in progress, they kept the walls plastered with posters and slogans to boost school spirit. They introduced many new songs and cheers and also used many other acrobatics in their cheering than previously.

FRESH-SOPH CHEERLEADERS

This year the Fresh-Soph cheerleaders of C.H.S. practiced diligently. They introduced many new motions using acrobatics. The season was exciting, and the cheering was fun due to the high-spirited fans. We will always remember the pep sessions with all the student body enthusiasm and spirit.

A.F.S.

The AFS committee's purpose is to provide funds, friends, and fun for exchange students. Although we did not have an exchange student this year, our committee sold stationery and had a dollar day for next year's student. The committee is responsible to the local chapter of AFS, which consists of village organizations and churches.

MAROON AND WHITE

Although Maroon and White is not an organized club, it still exists. With Mr. Knox as sponsor, interested students are invited to submit various feature articles for the Cambridge Chronicle through the classroom. Senior class members are honored in the Senior Spotlight section. Through Maroon and White, the public discovers more about the high school while the students practice journalism.

King, Kevin Gustafson and Queen, Lynne Nimrick.

The Homecoming activities actually began with work on the class floats in preparation for the parade and judging October 10. The spirit actually was fired up at a wild bonfire and pep session Thursday night in the bowl. The king and queen, Kevin Gustafson and Lynne Nimrick, were announced that night.

The Freshmen won the class float contest during the parade Saturday morning. The Seniors and Sophomores tied for second place, and the Juniors won third. Following the parade a pep session was held uptown.

Unfortunately we lost the varsity game to Winola with a score of 13 to 12. We almost made it!

The loss in the afternoon didn't hamper the success of the dance at 8:00. The king and queen were formally crowned during the dance, and their court was introduced. This court consisted of Lynn Gustafson and Roger Scott, Teresa Grant and Paul Johnson, Linda Beuseling and Bob Lindburg, and Wanda Schieferdecker and Greg Johnson. All in all, homecoming this year was a success.

After six long weeks of night practice and hard work, the two performances of the Junior Class Play, "The Worm Shall Squirm", finally arrived. The play dealt with high school students taking over the responsibilities of their principal. Half the fun in presenting a class play is the practices. The directors were constantly yelling "Louder!" and Mr. McAvoy was always encouraging us with "Give us one of these!" Our big night was here! At six o'clock we started with the grease paint and waited nervously for the eight o'clock curtain. We were very proud of our performances.

VIKING CARNIVAL

When a student pays his $3.50 for his Viking Annual, he may not realize that what he is paying is only a part of the actual cost of the yearbook. This initial cost of the Viking must cover the expenses of film, developing, printing fees, and other materials needed for the production of a yearbook. On the average one annual costs approximately $10.00. Money from Carnival enables the Viking Staff to cover a lot of the expense, leaving the student with a minimal cost. Then the money which is left over goes into a fund which is used to purchase materials needed to get the yearbook started the next year.

The time and effort put into Viking Carnival not only provides fun for those who play the games, but reduces the cost of the yearbook.

HONORS ASSEMBLY

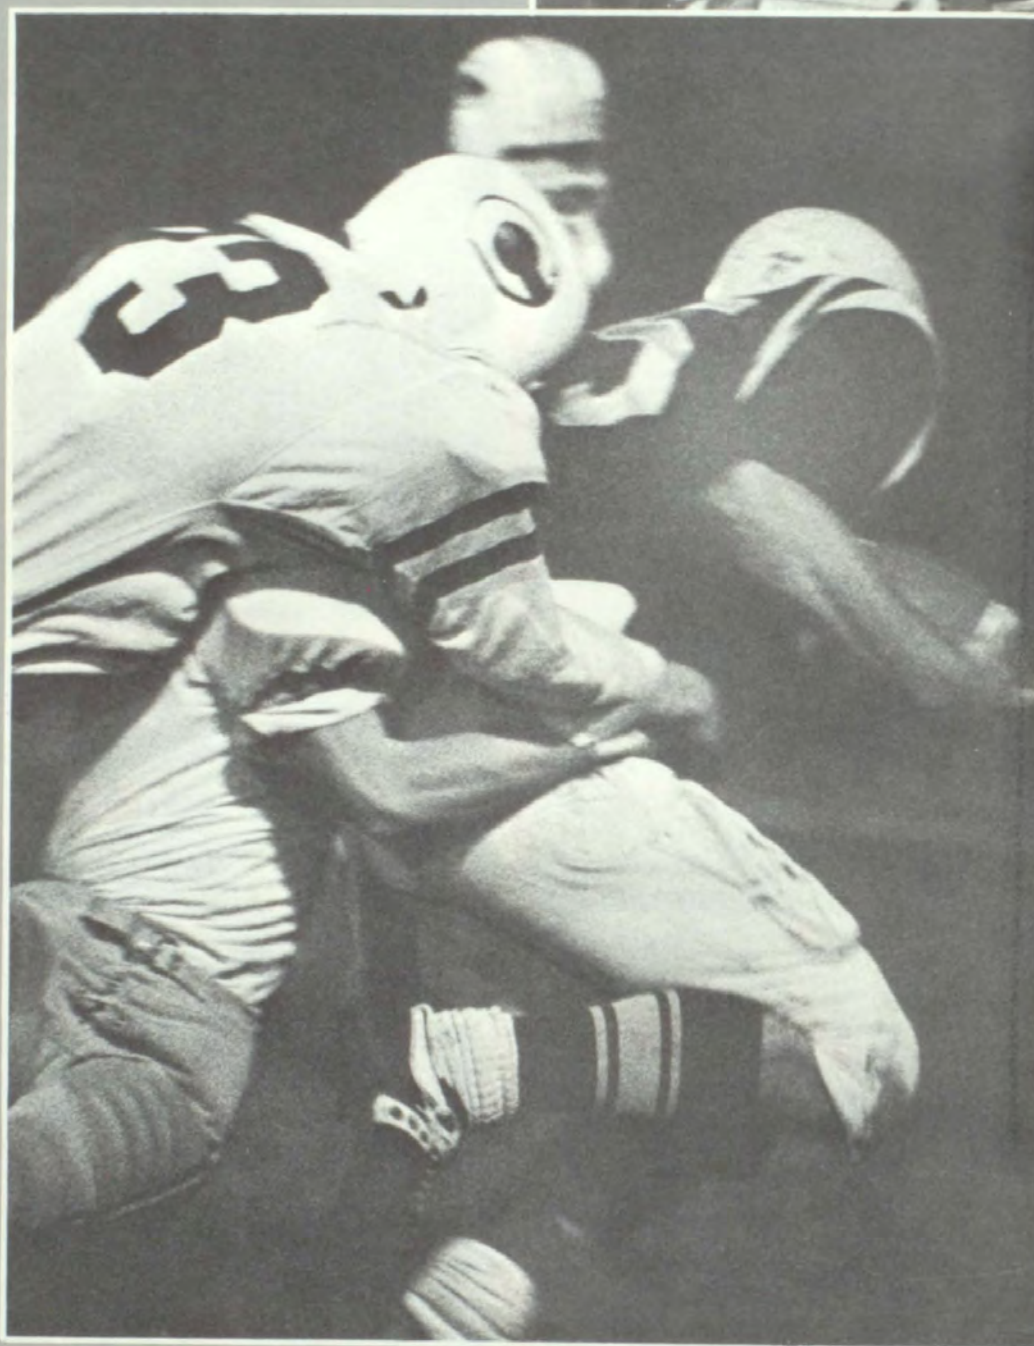

GRADUATION 1971

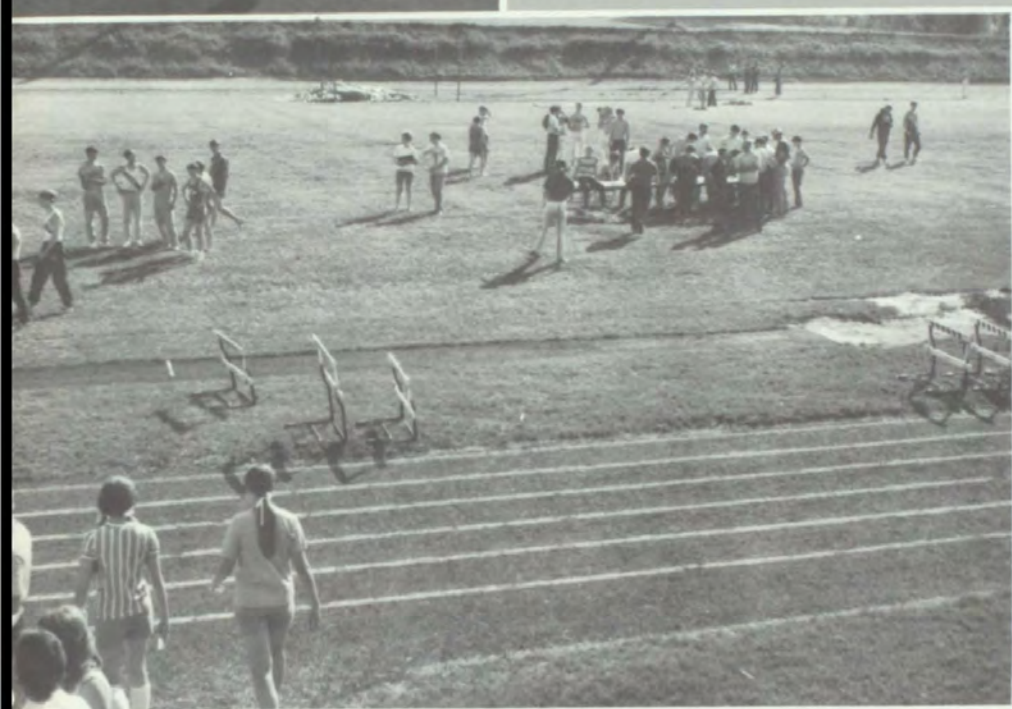

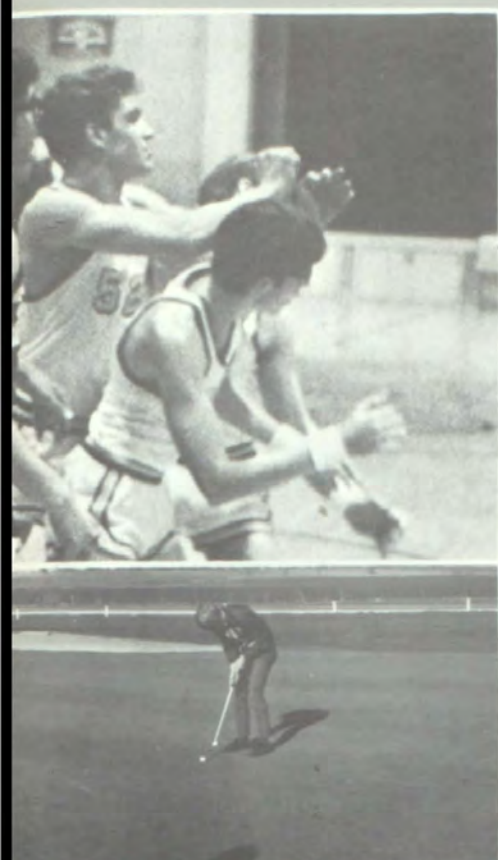

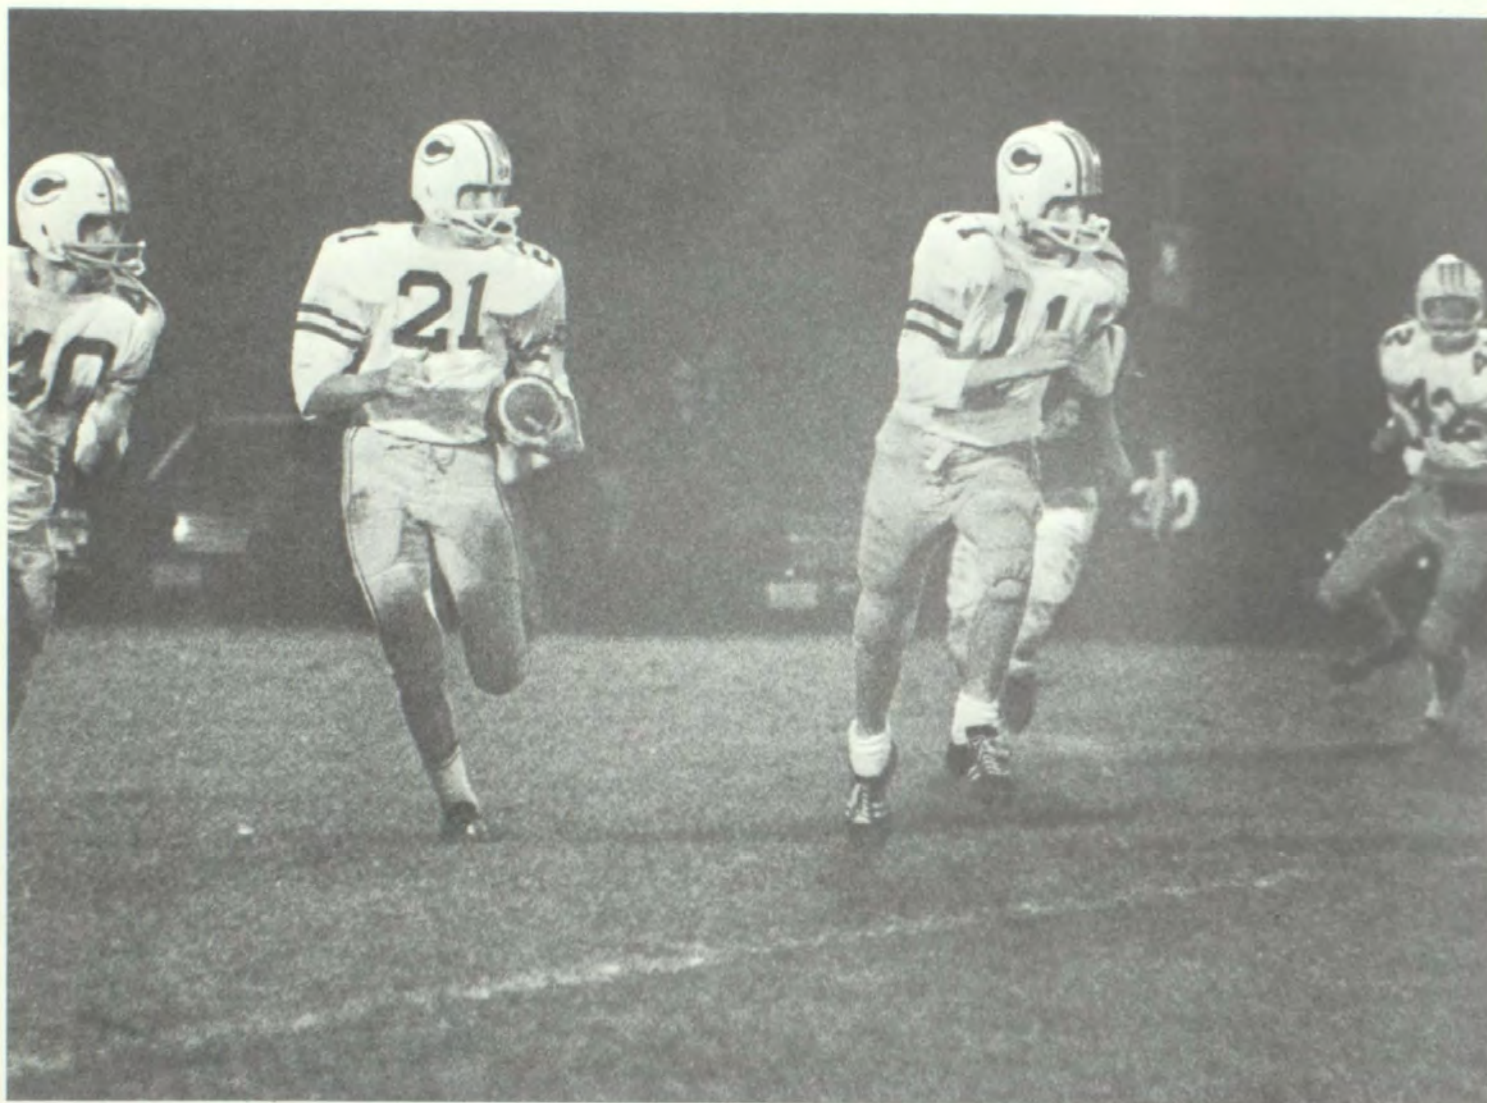

Because of the small size of our class, we were more like a big family. All through our Senior Year we kept reminding ourselves, "This is our last football game, our last basketball game, our last Prom, etc., etc., etc., but all along we refused to accept the fact that it was. When Graduation finally came along, the realization that we were leaving suddenly hit us. We knew now that we would have to leave good ol' C.H.S. and all our friends and memories behind. Even though we are sad, we know that we'll make new friends and have more fun in the Future.

The varsity football team ended up its season with a record of 4--4. After a slow start, the Vikings ended up the season strongly. Once again they lost their Homecoming game, which was played against Winola, but this did not discourage their morale. They then knocked off a conference contender and finished on a three-game winning streak with an incredible 58--0 victory over Rockridge. The team will have many experienced players returning next year.

Mike Maertens was picked as All-Conference offensive end and defensive back along with a spot on the All Little Western Team as offensive end. Also, Dave Nelson and Paul Hultgren received honorable mention honors for All-Conference tackle and quarterback, respectively.

The managers at C.H.S. are a hardworking, dedicated group of young men. Their duties include keeping the equipment for the major sports in good condition, cleaning uniforms, and marking the football field and track. They also keep an inventory of the miles of adhesive tape and the other goods that are kept in the medicine kit that sits on the bench at all sporting events.

The managers are kept constantly running. They are always receiving hasty instructions from the players and coaches. The fleet-footed football managers for the 1970-71 season are Willard Robertson, John Melvin, and David Johnson.

FRESH-SOPH FOOTBALL

With a tremendous effort, the Freshmen and Sophomores came through with an outstanding season. Winning five games while losing only two in conference play showed a great deal of determination and spirit in a team that had a lack of size and speed and was underrated by all.

Coached by Al Arcand and assisted by Bob Baylor, the team allowed only seventy-six points to the opposing forces. Sparked by a good running attack, the offense put 110 points on the board.

The team captains' duties were shared by Gary Hancock and Mike Hall. Gary Hancock started the year at the quarterback position. He was badly needed as a running-back and was replaced by Marv Morey, who finished the year doing a good job.

Prospects for next years season are very promising due to the return of many players with game experience.

The 1970-71 Varsity basketball team ended up its regular season by defeating Orion. Besides the thrill of beating our arch basketball rival, we also gained a share of the conference title. Our season record ended at 17--8. In tournament play we got second in the Holiday Tournament, third in the Conference Tournament, and were defeated by Alexis for the District Championship.

In All-Conference balloting, Mike Maertens and Bob Lindburg received first team ratings. Jim Wohrley achieved special mention, and our super sub John Lange got honorable mention.

The Fresh-Soph basketball team, directed by their new coach Mr. Miller, finished their season better than anticipated. With one of the smallest teams in the conference, these boys ended up with a 9--5 league record and 12--6 overall. With many returning freshmen, a fine eighth grade team coming up, and one year under his belt, Coach Miller anticipates another fine season.

As superintendent, Mr. Smith manages the functions of the entire school. Meetings, reports, and other such duties take up a great deal of his time.

Administration

As principal of Cambridge High School, Mr. Buhlig has a big and sometimes difficult job. He handles all the problems and administrative duties of the high school.

SECRETARIES

At Cambridge High, the secretaries, Ina Burgeson, Pearl Gillespie, and Dru Lindbeck, give much assistance to the student body, administration, and faculty. Their duties involve distributing information, answering telephones, and typing.

A leading role in determining school policy is taken by the Cambridge Board of Education. Calculating and supervising the selection and hiring of new teachers and other school employees is one of their responsibilities. Besides these duties, the board also decides the action to be taken on financial matters, extracurricular activities, and rules within the school.
