This year's Viking Annual is a long overdue tribute to the parents and citizens of the Cambridge Community who have so faithfully supported our school activities. Every year parents lend a helping hand with the prom banquet and breakfast, bake sales, chili suppers, and other school projects. Other citizens in the community are loyal supporters of our athletic events, music concerts, class plays, and other fund raising projects. Community organizations show their interest in our school by sponsoring students at camps and workshops, as well as by providing awards for various student achievements. Without interest and support from within the community, even the printing of this yearbook would have been impossible.

We, the students of C.H.S., will never forget the many ways in which our parents and the citizens of the community have contributed to our school days. Therefore, we would like to express our gratitude by dedicating the 1967 Viking to you, parents and citizens of Cambridge.

FACULTY

The present grade school was erected in 1906. At the time of its construction, it housed grades one through twelve. This year citizens of the Cambridge school district passed a bond issue to provide funds for the construction of a new building for grades one through six. The grade school, though outdated, holds many pleasant memories for all its past students.

Superintendent of Schools
Mr. A. G. Smith

Administration

Superintendent Mr. Albert Smith, the superintendent of schools, is one of the most important members of the school administration. As well as filling out his many reports and attending various meetings, Mr. Smith is kept busy teaching classroom drivers education to sophomores.

Mr. Wayne J. Buhlig our principal is kept quite busy. His early morning duties begin as students come for their "excuse slips." Later, we find him conducting a Bookkeeping class. In his "spare time", we might find him in consultation with students and parents.

Board of Education. The Board of Education holds another important position in the Cambridge schools. It is the job of the new board to determine salaries, hire new teachers, budget various financial transactions, and give final okays on extra curricular activities.

Mr. W. J. Buhlig, Principal

School Board: Mr. Rishel, Mr. Arndt, Mr. Sherrard, Mr. Mecum, Mr. Boelons, Mr. Gustafson, Mr. Buhlig, Mr. Wigant, Mr. Smith.

Secretaries. The secretaries are kept busy throughout the day by filling reports, making out receipts, answering phones, and typing forms. They are also kept busy typing last minute reports for students. They are always ready to do whatever they can to help the students at C.H.S.

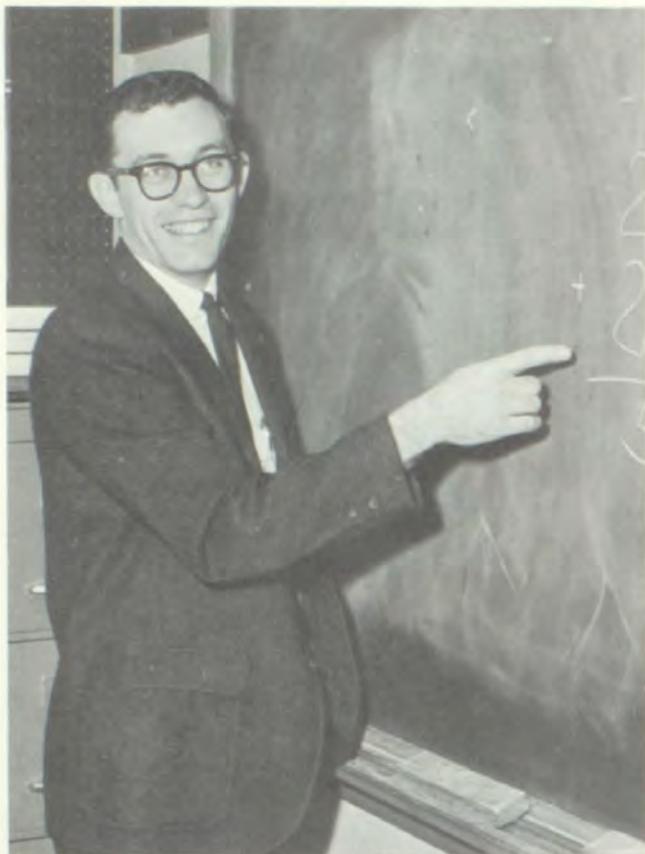

Mrs. Burgeson puts the books away for another day.

Mrs. Gillespie makes a final once over before filing a form.

Guidance Counselor. Mr. Bredthauer, a new member of the administration this year, is the guidance counselor and the psychology teacher at C.H.S. One of the duties of guidance counselor is to administer all tests which are given to college bound students. Mr. Bredthauer also directed the Junior Class Play this year.

"What's all this commotion about that new math?--
Mr. Mungerson

Mr. Nordstrom explains a problem by using the overhead projector.

Science and Math

The math program at C.H.S. consists of Algebra I and II, geometry and a combined course of solid geometry and trigonometry, taught by Mr. Mungerson and Mr. Nordstrom. Algebra is basic to all other math courses offered. Geometry consists of analyzing plane figures along with theorems and angles. Algebra II goes deeper into the mechanics of math, giving a solid preparation for the final math courses. Solid geometry and trigonometry are recommended for Seniors who plan to enter engineering or math fields.

The science program consists of general science, biology, and chemistry and physics alternately, taught by Mr. Place and Mr. Mungerson.

Mr. Place discusses the procedure for a Physics experiment.

Mr. Devinney makes a final check in the grade book before making out report cards.

The social studies program at C.H.S. includes world history, U.S. history, modern problems, and civics or government.

World history, taught by Mr. Devinney, is a study of civilization from earliest times to the present time with a strong emphasis given to geographical settings. World history students learn that what we are today and what we have today has been handed to us down through the ages. In addition the use of the regular text for the course time is set aside for discussion of current events. This year a special study is being made of Viet Nam.

U.S. history, taught by Mr. Truckenbrod, is compulsory for all students. It is taken the junior year. U.S. students study our country from the early beginning until today when it is a leading world power. The Civil War, industrial revolution, rulings of presidents, and world wars are just a few of the areas studied in U.S. One six weeks is devoted to the study of the U.S. Flag, the Declaration of Independence, the Australian ballot system, and the U.S. and Illinois Constitutions. This six weeks goes deep into the mechanics of our government.

Modern problems is a study of current social, economic, and political problems. Areas of study include culture, morals, public opinion, income tax, insurance, social disintegration, and communism. Various textbooks are used, but much of the information is obtained from current publications.

Civics is an extensive study of the structure of the government.

Mr. Truckenbrod points out an important area on the map to his U.S. students.

Miss Woolsey finds a little humor in one of her students answers.

Mr. Palmer explains to his industrial arts boys the basics of mechanical drawing.

Vocational

Acquiring skills and knowledge needed to perform the duties of a good family member is a continuous process. The vocational program at C.H.S. is designed to accomplish the objective.

The home economics program, directed by Miss Woolsey, consists of home ec I and II and family living. In home ec I and II emphasis is given to many phases of home and family care. The family living class deals with family relations in marriage and raising a family.

The ag courses, taught by Mr. Whorley, deals with farm practice work, livestock judging, parliamentary procedures, and laboratory work.

The industrial arts, taught by Mr. Palmer, study mechanical drawing, metal work, electricity, and wood-work.

Mr. Whorley gives an example of public speaking to his Ag boys.

"Ha, ha. You made a mistake and I didn't."

Miss Maras dictates to her shorthand class.

Commercial

Mr. Buhlig makes out the next days schedule for bookkeeping.

Commercial courses are a must for those planning to enter the business field after graduation from C. H. S. Typing I, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office practice are the commercial courses offered. All freshmen are required to take one semester of personal typing, in which they learn basic typing skills. Typing I is a more advanced typing class in which the student learns to improve his accuracy and speed. Various business forms are also studied. One year of typing is required before taking shorthand. In shorthand the student learns to take dictation, transcribe letters, and use the dictaphone. Bookkeeping class teaches students how to keep an accurate balance and work sheet, and how to use different types of journals. Neatness is required in bookkeeping. In Office practice the study of actual office work, the student, learns to file, make out payrolls, send telegrams and many other office musts.

Mrs. Kenward discusses Shakespeare with her English 4 class.

Languages

Cambridge High School's language department is excellent. The English department is headed by Mrs. Kenward, Mrs. Jonson, Mrs. Bjorling, and Mrs. Peterson.

The freshman make an extensive study of literature, as well as a good review of grammar. During the freshman year, these English students read GREAT EXPECTATIONS and the ODYSSEY. Sophomores continue their extensive review of grammar. They also read SILAS MARNER and JULIUS CAESAR. The juniors put all of their grammar review into practical use of composing themes and research papers. Juniors also take an extensive study of American literature. The seniors work hard at many things. They study Shakespeare and make an over all review of grammar and vocabulary.

Students at C.H.S. are also very privileged to have an excellent Spanish department headed by Mrs. Decker. The excellent Spanish teacher gives the students a good start in the grammar and composition of the Spanish language. Sophomores continue learning grammar and begin translating literature.

Mrs. Jonson runs off some study sheets for her Modern English class.

Mrs. Peterson makes out an absentee slip in her English 1 class.

Mrs. Decker makes out a pass for Bob Hultman.

Mrs. Bjorling checks to see that everyone has handed in their themes.

Miss Koehne watches John Usrey prepare clay for sculpting.

Fine Arts

The fine arts department is composed of speech and art.

Speech is taught by Mrs. Kenward. Here students gain experience in speaking before a large group. They learn to conduct a good business meeting using correct parliamentary procedure. The speech class also touches briefly on the area of debates.

This year C.H.S. added art as a new subject to its curriculum. The course is taught by Miss Koehne. Students in the art class learn to do many different things. They have become acquainted with pen and ink lettering, stenciling, ceramics and many of the basic elements of design. Painting, oil and watercolors, was greatly enjoyed as their spring "out-of-doors" class was initiated. Miss Koehne is also the Viking Annual sponsor.

Mrs. Kenward goes over parliamentary procedure with her speech class.

Mr. Burrus prepares to play for one of his students.

Band and Chorus

The music program of C. H. S. is composed of band and chorus. This year, for the first time, we have two instructors, Mr. Burrus for band and Miss Sheean for chorus.

The band program consists of marching, pep, and concert band. Despite many wet feet and sniffles the marching band usually comes up with some great half-time shows to entertain the football fans. The pep band, which plays during half time at basketball games, comes up with some rousing marches and pop music. Most of the year, however is spent on concert band.

Boys and girls, mixed chorus and two special groups, the barber shop quartet and a girls octet, make up the chorus program. This year the chorus has been very busy working on numbers for P. T. A., the Christmas and spring concerts, the Cornbelt Conference Chorus Festival, vocal contests and special appearances. Miss Sheean spends many of her noon hours working with the barber shoppers and the octet. The chorus has been turning out some unusual and interesting numbers this year.

The chorus proudly display their pastels at the annual Christmas concert.

"Coach" Arcand helps a class learn to shoot a bow and arrow.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick looks over a score sheet during a G.A.A. basketball game.

P.E. and Health

The school nurse, Mrs. Dalhberg, is kept busy throughout the year. One of her main duties is to give eye and ear tests. She is on hand at school and at games for any unexpected emergencies.

The physical education department has added many new activities to its curriculum this year. Mr. (Coach) Arcand, a new member of the teaching staff, instructs the boys in basketball, baseball, wrestling, tumbling, and in a physical fitness program. He put the boys through many strenuous tests for fitness.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick instructed the girls in soccer, hockey, modern dance, basketball, tumbling, soft ball, and cane dancing.

This year the two gym classes joined forces for social dancing every Friday. They also studied drugs, alcohol, and physical changes during a unit on health.

A student teacher, Mr. Johnson, helped Mr. Arcand in the boys classes.

The School Nurse, Mrs. Dahlberg, tests the eyes and ears of a student as part of her job.

Cooks, Custodians, and Bus Drivers
 The position of cook, custodian, and bus driver at C.H.S. are very important ones to us. Everyday cooks work very hard to fix nutritious meals for hungry students, as well as helping with special suppers.

The custodians have a very big job on their hands. They do everything from replacing a missing screw to mowing the grass and shoveling the sidewalks.

The bus drivers are of vital importance, too, because they have the job of bringing the students to school. They are very skilled drivers who know their business. As well as bringing students to and from C.H.S. daily they also drive buses for games, for field trips, and for band and chorus festivals.

Freshmen

Jerry Higgenbottom, Leonard Boelens, and Dave Johnson work on their assignments.

The Class of 1970 entered Cambridge High School ready for the four busy years ahead.

The Initiation Dance at which the Freshmen presented an amusing skit, formally welcomed them to C. H. S.

The freshmen eagerly joined in Homecoming activities and plans. The class as a whole, entered a float in the Homecoming Parade. Then various members of the class were involved in the marching band, the Fresh-Soph. football team, and the Fresh-Soph. cheerleading squad.

With Homecoming over, the freshmen turned their thoughts to Carnival. The class decided to sponsor a work day and a bar-b-que supper. The earnestness of the class crowned their candidates Doris Wahlheim and Greg Johnson Queen and King of the 1966 Carnival.

February brought the annual F. F. A. and F. H. A. Sweetheart Ball. The freshmen candidates were Linda Berry and Craig Palmer.

At the end of the year, the freshmen were anxiously looking forward to becoming sophomores.

Freshmen class officers: Arlys Fickling, Secretary; Doris Wahlheim, Student Council Representative; Janet Nelson; Treasurer; and Martin Crapnell, President.

The Freshmen girls use every spare moment to study for semester tests.

Sophomores

"Volunteers anyone?" asks Mr. Place.

The Class of 1969 is now well established at C.H.S.

This class started the year quite well. A few boys were on the Fresh-Soph. football team, which captured the conference title. There were also several sophomores in marching band. Two of the girls were on the Fresh-Soph. cheerleading squad.

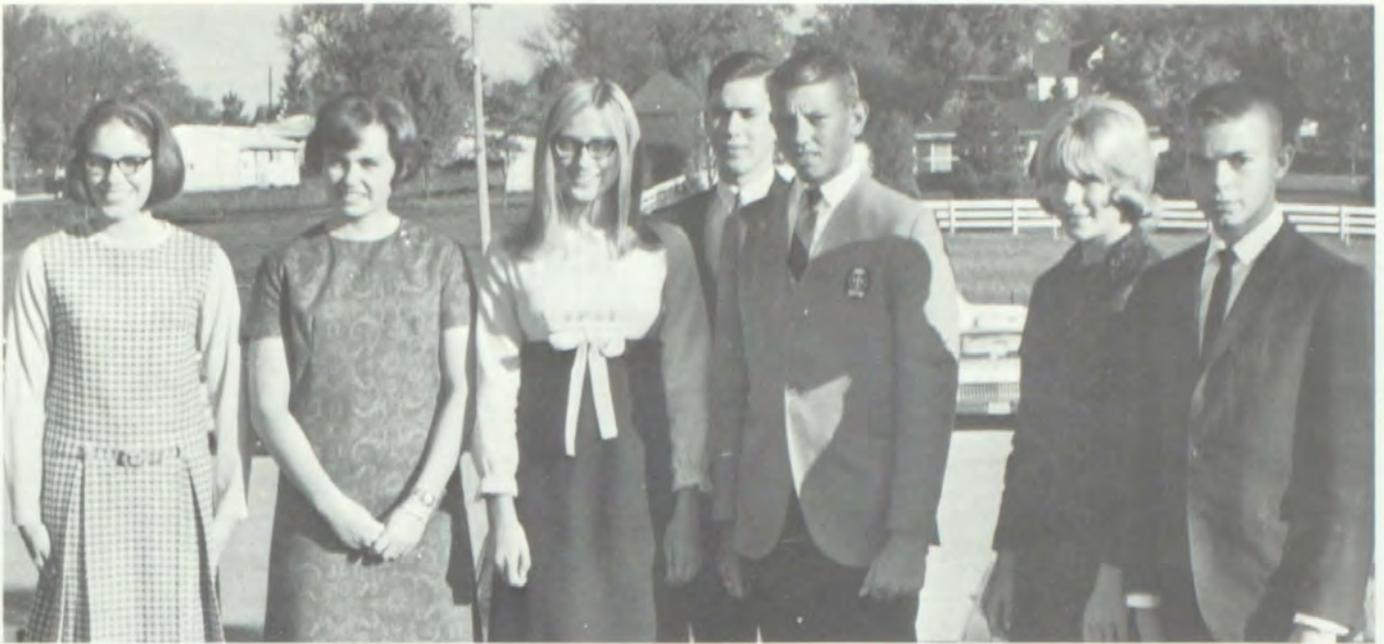

Homecoming loomed above the sophomores. They decided to enter a float in the Homecoming Parade.

With the excitement of Homecoming over, the class' main thoughts were of Carnival. The sophomores had a corn pick-up and a spaghetti supper and money raising projects. Roger Fike and Jane Sturdevant, their candidates for King and Queen.

The sophomore boys proved to be "Quite the athletes." Their interests in basketball has shown this to be true.

As the year drew nearer to the end Sophomores anticipated their upperclassmen years.

Rhea Reed and Rosemary Binno are adding new shelves to the Junior Class Book Rack.

This year's class of 1968 joined forces with the seniors to become the upper-classmen of C.H.S.

After the first week of school, the juniors ordered their class rings and really began to feel like upper-classmen. This year's juniors were very lucky, as the class rings arrived right on time.

Homecoming was the next important event to arrive. The juniors decided to enter a float in the Homecoming Parade, and after many long hours of work, their float won first place.

The boys in the junior class were quite active in sports this year. Football, basketball and track kept them busy while the girls tried to excel in G.A.A. sports.

With Homecoming over, the junior's thoughts turned to winning Carnival for a second time. They nominated Sharon Peterson and Danny Hulsander as candidates. To raise money, they sponsored a Chili Supper and Work Day.

February brought Sweetheart Ball with Sharon Peterson and Larry Rishel as candidates from the class.

In March the prom was well planned in the back of the junior's minds, but no ideas slipped out until the big night.

When the seniors walked across the stage on graduation day, the juniors kept thinking of being able to walk across that stage next year when they would be the ruling class at C.H.S.

The Class of '67 officers

Seniors Reign Supreme

This year's class of 1967 entered their last year of high school with much happiness and fond recollection of years gone by.

As freshman the class enjoyed a very busy year, becoming oriented to the new routine of high school life.

The sophomore year was even busier. This was the year they planned the Hop, which was entitled "Hawaiian Sunset". During this year the sophomore candidates Ron Reed and Trish Mariman were crowned King and Queen of Viking Carnival.

The junior year will be long remembered by the class. They chose a very distinctive class ring design. This was one way in which they have shown their individuality. The class spent many long hours preparing for their prom, "The Old South". The main attractions were the old plantation home and the weeping willow tree.

Their last year has found the seniors busily preparing for their futures as adults in their society. The candidates for Homecoming 1967 were: Sylvia Leander, escorted by John Sherrard; Virginia Lindquist, escorted by Martin Sherrard; Trish Mariman, escorted by Clyde Maertens; and Joyce Hunter, escorted by Jay Gibson. Chosen as King and Queen were Ron Granck and Sharon Leander.

Carnival soon loomed above the seniors as their candidates they chose Pam Galle and Jim Hancock.

Sweetheart Ball put an end to the long, cold winter. Theresa DeMay and Ron Reed reigned as Sweetheart and Heart-Throb with Joyce Hunter and Doug Dalberg as Duchess and Duch attending them.

When graduation came, the seniors were filled with memories they will never forget in the years to come.

Today's Dreams . . .

Tomorrow's Realities

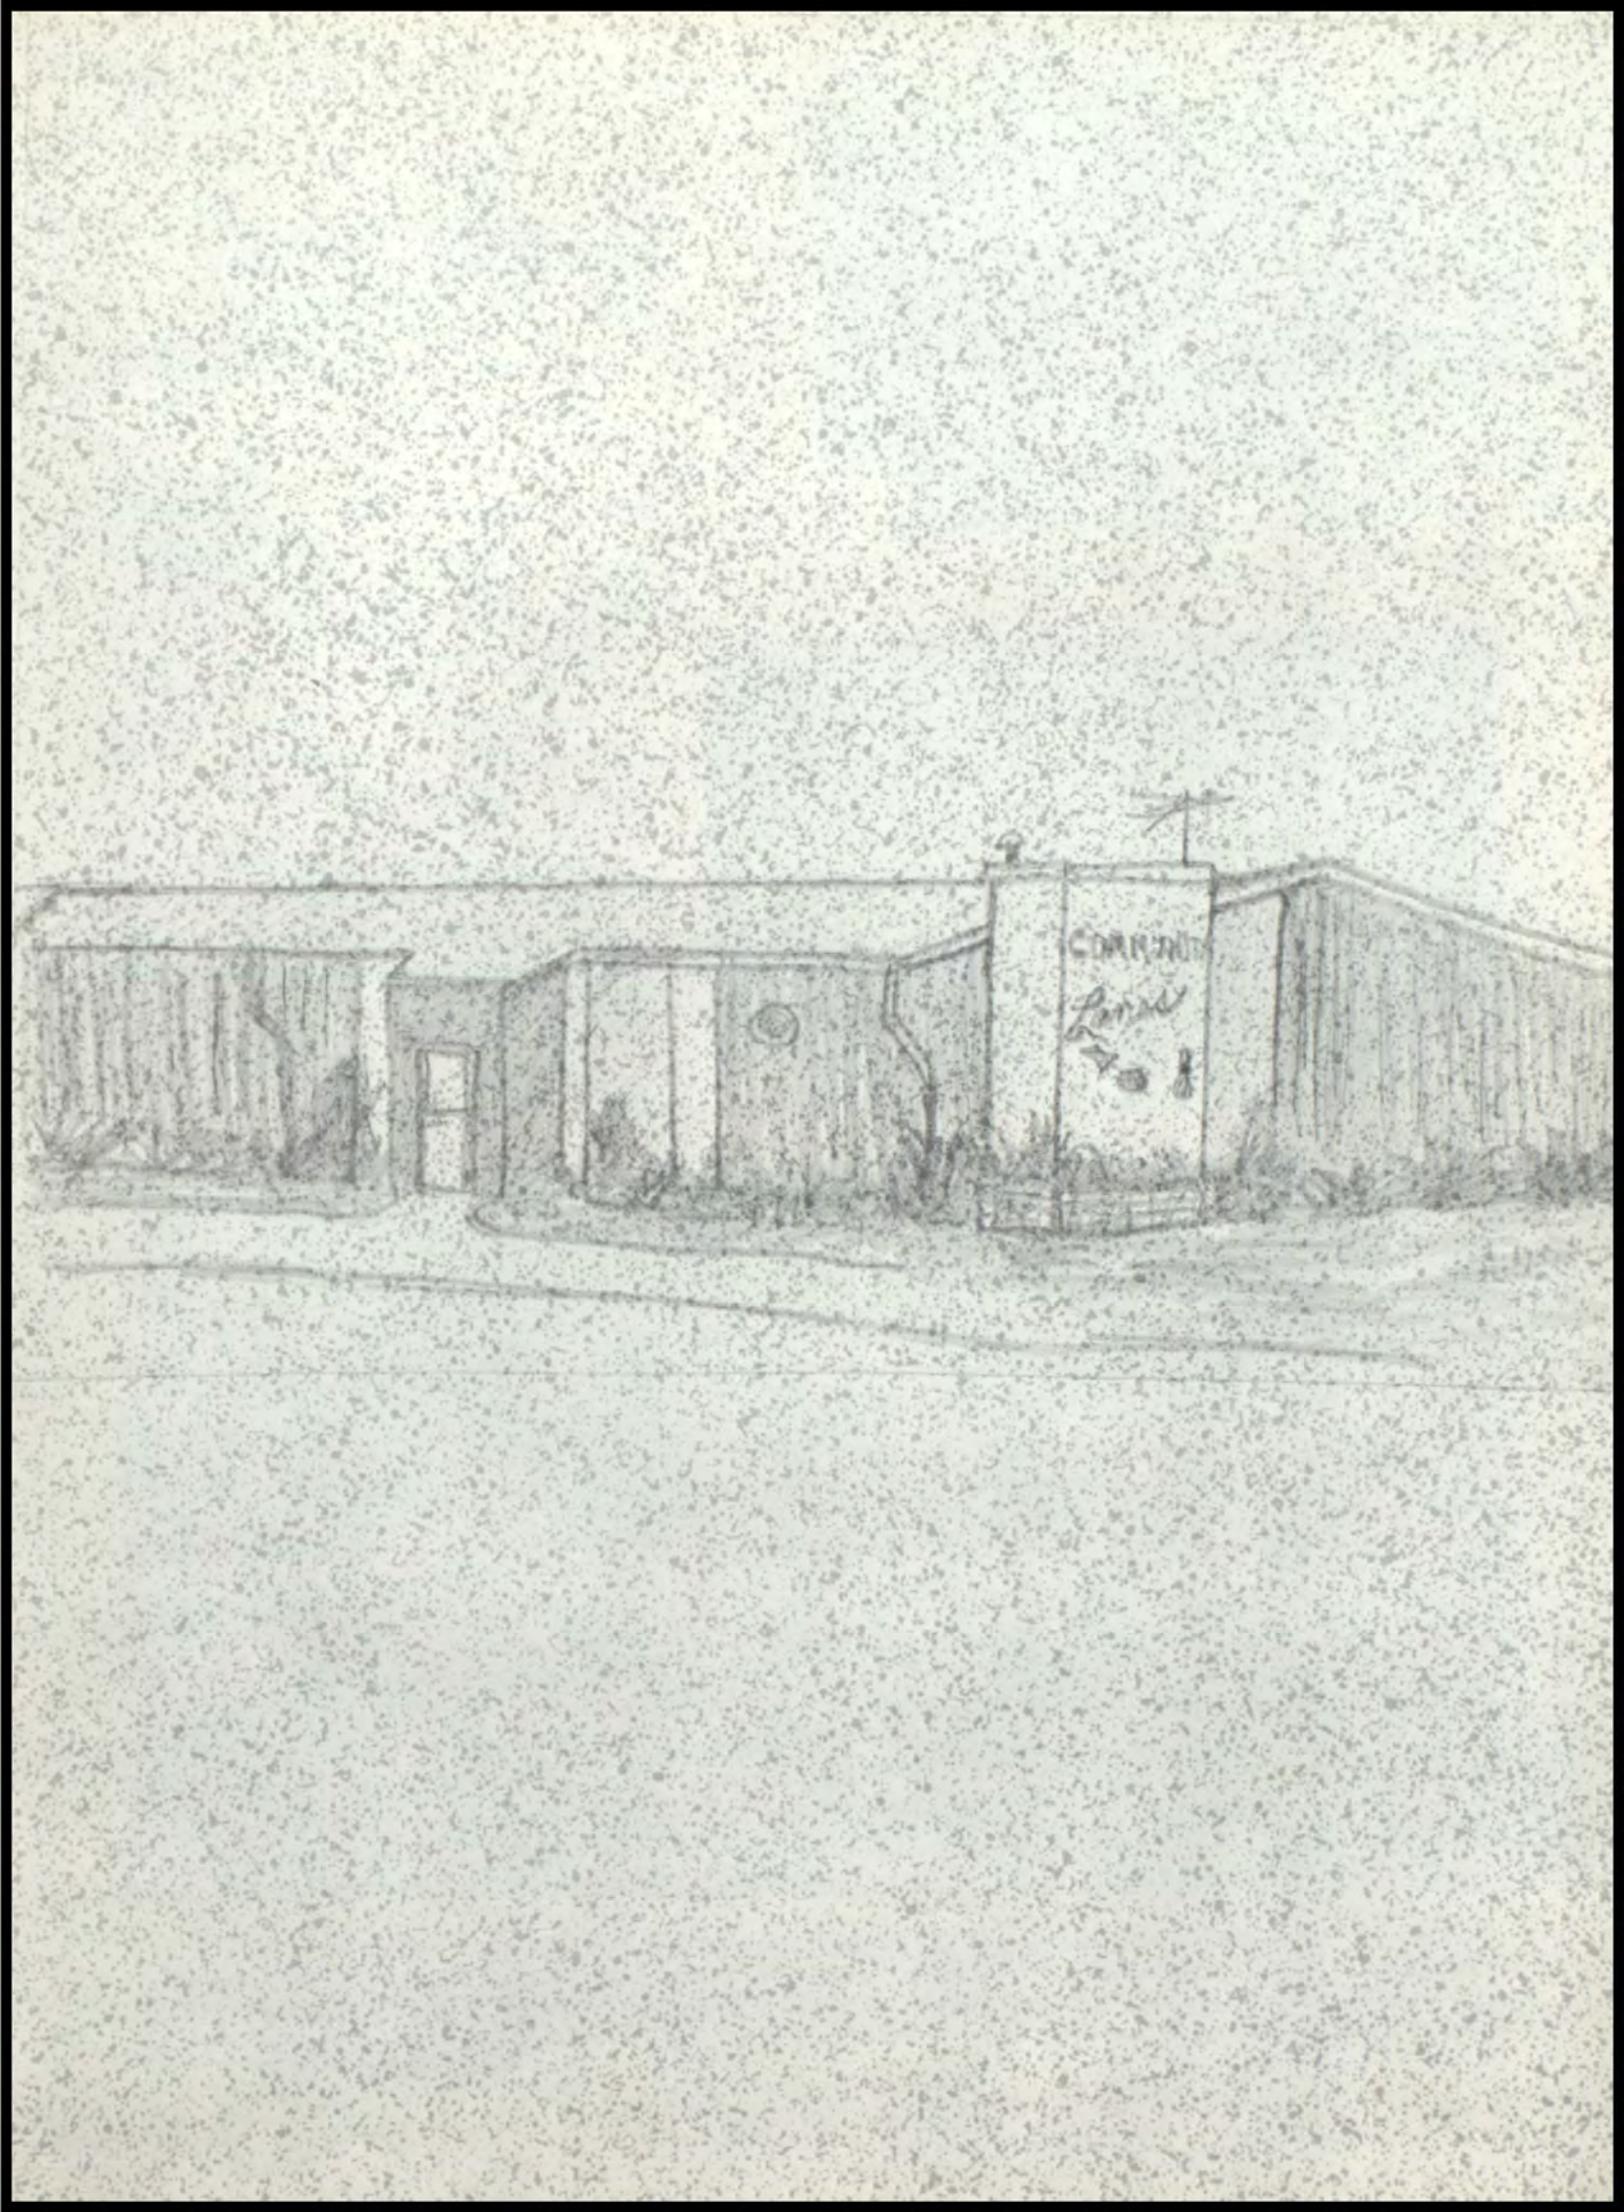

Each year members of the junior class select their class ring. This year's graduation class selected the ring appearing on this page. The motto which they chose to replace their eight grade motto, "Eight Down and More to Go," also appears on this page. The Class of '67 also chose pale yellow and navy blue as class colors, and picked the yellow rose as their flower.

ATHLETICS

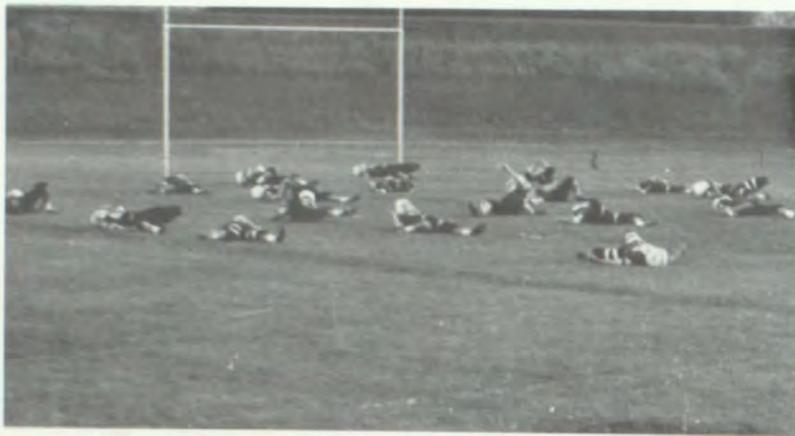

Students at CHS take an active interest in many sports. Interscholastic football, basketball and track and golf are primary sports for the boys. Bowling is taught in gym classes and many of the students carry this over into their leisure time activities at the Community Lanes, which we see here.

C.H.S. had a good football season this year. The Fresh-Soph start their season with a tie against Erie. Coach Arcand then got them into top gear. Except for a tie with Orion, they won all of their remaining games. This 6-0-2 record made them Fresh-Soph conference champs. As champions, the team received a trophy and each squad member received a small football for his letter jacket. These players should give C.H.S. a good varsity team in a couple of years.

The Varsity squad didn't have an exceptional year, as the Fresh-Soph did, but they came out with more wins than losses. Coach Truckenbrod has 13 lettermen back from last year's team. These "veterans" helped win the four games that took place before injuries and other difficulties became a problem. The Vikings lost their next three games, but rallied to defeat Sherrard in the last game of the season. Cambridge certainly wasn't ashamed of their 5-3-0 record which placed them fourth in the conference.

Triumphant smiles after a hard game.

Finishing fourth in the conference the fresh-soph team had a fair season. When the season began Cambridge had possession of the Nubin, but the team lost it along the way. This year's fresh-soph team was fairly tall with Dick (Spoon) Lindberg at 6'3", Gary Stach and Ed Hedbloom also well over 6', and Mike Crapnell at nearly 6'. Roger Fike was a bit shorter than the tall four but would always come up with a good shot. Brad Munson was the ball handler and playmaker. When they needed a good dribbler, Coach Jack Devinney put in Art Devoss. In the past, many fine players have developed from the fresh-soph, and this year certainly will be no exception.

Varsity Basketball

Teamwork was the key to the successful year that the Cambridge Vikings enjoyed under their new head coach, Al Arcand. After starting out the season with two conference losses in overtime, the team started to gel and paced by a strong defensive press and uncanny shooting accuracy, went on to place third in their own Holiday Tournament. They then swept the conference tournament title for the second year in a row. After the tournament, the team met a little hard luck and won only half of their remaining 12 games, with 2 more games losses in overtime. Three seniors and two juniors combined to give Cambridge a near Conference championship. With big Clyde Maertens and Tom Reed underneath the basket, and their complements Gary Stahl, Jim Hancock, and Mike Johnson providing outside sharpshooting, Cambridge was a definite threat to any team in the conference. Regional play saw the Vikings win their first game against Alexis, but then succumb to a scrappy Warren of Mon-

Many new records were set by team members. Jim Hancock was given the Scholastic Athletic Award by the Cambridge Men's Club, as well as three of the four trophies that are awarded annually by the school to members of the team.

In all, the Track team of 1967 deserves a great deal of credit for their fine efforts and "new records set".

ORGANIZATIONS

Students at C.H.S. are very proud to be a part of a community in which the churches assume an active and important role in community affairs. The number of churches in Cambridge has recently risen from three to five. This shows that the young people of our community have an ample opportunity to worship and participate in the many, varied activities of the church of their choice. Certainly, these churches deserve a great deal of credit for the fine influence which they have exerted on the lives of students at C.H.S.

Mr. Burrus checks practice cards.

Cambridge High School has three bands; marching band, pep band, and concert band.

The marching band plays at half-time during home football games. Before football season starts, the band, directed by Pat Mariman, head majorette, goes through many cold, wet mornings of practice. Wet feet, droopy hair, and rushing to make your next class after practice, are all a part of making the band what is is. Homecoming activities really put the band through its paces at the pep rally, the parade, and the game. In spite of all the mud this year, the band did remarkably well.

The pep band supplies music between games during basketball season. They play popular songs, marches, old favorites and school songs.

Under the direction of Mr. Burrus, the concert band puts in many long hours of practice. The main goal of the concert band is to receive a superior rating at the state band contest. Hard work and lots of practice are needed to earn a superior rating.

The Girls' Chorus preparing to give final number on Concert.

The Mixed Chorus this year was very fortunate to have a new chorus teacher, Miss Mary Ann Sheean. The Chorus presented two very good concerts, with much work put behind these concerts.

The Girls' Chorus did some unique numbers this year. The Boys' Ensemble performed some romantic numbers on the Spring Concert.

The mixed chorus this year received a Superior at Contest at Canton. This was well-deserved, and the chorus was extremely pleased with their long hours of work.

This year Miss Sheean organized a Junior Girls' Octet, and a Barbershop quartet. Both of these groups performed at Contest and received Superiors. They also performed at all of the Concerts.

AFS—American Field Service

Annamarie Troger the A.F.S. student from Wottens, Austria.

For the past three years the Cambridge chapter of the American Field Service has sponsored a foreign exchange student at Cambridge High School. This year the committee, which includes nine high school students, sponsored Miss Annamarie Troger.

Annamarie, or Anna as everyone called her, is from Wottens, Austria. She is nineteen years old and was a member of the senior class.

During her stay in Cambridge, Anna showed slides of her country to various clubs and organizations. Her talks about Austria were considered very interesting and informative by everyone who had the opportunity to hear her.

Anna's stay in Cambridge introduced her to many American customs. She learned to like American food and also learned to understand football. Not only did Annamarie learn many of our customs, but she also taught students at CHS much about the customs of her own country. It was really interesting to learn some of the differences and likenesses between the two countries.

Annamarie arrived in Cambridge in August, 1966. Her stay lasted until the end of July, at which time she toured the eastern states for three weeks before returning to Austria.

Anna's presence at CHS was certainly an asset. She contributed much to the daily routine of school life, and will be greatly missed by all of those who knew her.

Annamarie shows Dick Lindburg a book on Austria.

Larry Stahl helps Anna with translation of scientific words.

Student Council Assembly.

Sophomores enjoying Bermuda Day

Bermuda Day provided an informal atmosphere.

The Student Council at C.H.S. was responsible for many fine activities throughout the year 1966-1967.

During Student Council Week they sponsored and served a breakfast at which faculty members were given honorary free meal tickets. Also they had a "Clash Day" and a "Slack Day", which were enjoyed by students and faculty alike.

At Honors Assembly the retiring president, Beth Munson presented the school with the pictures of our past 3 A.F.S. students. We were then introduced to the new Student Council members for the 1967-1968 school year.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society sponsored by Mr. Buhlig, Mr. Nordstrom, and Mr. Bredthauer, is an organization of students, who by the second semester of their sophomore year, have an 88 academic average and possess qualities of leadership. During their sophomore year, these students are placed on probation, at which time they may attend the regular meetings, but may not vote or hold an office. If, after one year, they maintain the qualifications of the organization, they are then permanent members and may enjoy the regular privileges.

The Honor Society sponsors a sock hop and the annual Christmas dance which gives everyone a chance to dress up and get into the spirit of the season. Also this year the Men's Club honored N.H.S. members at a noon luncheon.

The Viking Staff, sponsored by Miss Koehne, is the organization which is responsible for the publishing of the year book. Despite many long hours of work, and a lot of trouble meeting deadlines, they somehow manage to put out a great annual. Drawing layouts, writing copy, and taking and developing pictures, are all a part of the work done by the staff to put out the yearbook.

The main money making project of the year is the annual Viking Carnival. Money raised by the classes is used to finance the yearbook; the class which contributes the most money has their candidates crowned as king and queen of the carnival also, in the fall receipts for the annuals are sold, and orders taken for that year's book.

After all the work is done, and all the layouts are sent in, the staff can sit back with the rest of the students of C.H.S. and wait for the arrival of the book.

Maroon and White

Carol Telleen takes her weekly potpourri article to the Chronicle.

Articles published in the Chronicle by the Maroon and White inform the public of class and school activities at C.H.S. The organization not only fulfills this purpose but also gives its staff members the experience of writing news articles.

The writers for this year are Janet Nelson, freshman news; David Hultgren, sophomore news; Marvin Schumaker, junior news; Nancy Doy, senior news; and Carol Telleen, potpourri. Each of the class writers tells of the activities in which his or her class is participating. The potpourri writer informs the public of C.H.S. news in general. Mrs. Tyra Jonson sponsors and oversees the writers of the Maroon and White.

The writers have to be able to write well, and report the news accurately. This year's writers do a great job to make the every day happenings of Cambridge High School interesting and informative.

Library Club

Approximately forty-five students in Library Club take complete charge of most library activities during their study halls. Under the guidance and direction of Mrs. Kenward, the members run a very efficient library.

The librarian in charge checks books in and out, takes care of magazines, overdue books, the reference room, the bulletin board, and the many other necessary library tasks. A beginning librarian, or cadet, as they are sometimes called learn library procedure from an older member. When a student joins Library Club, he receives a bronze pin. After accumulating 170 hours of service, each period representing one hour, the student librarian exchanges this bronze pin for a silver pin on Honors Day.

The position of librarian calls for a responsible and earnest person. The librarians of C.H.S. are just such people. They keep the library and study hall running smoothly at all times.

The Amelia Gran Chapter of the Future Teachers of America, is an organization established to interest students in becoming teachers. This club is affiliated with the Illinois Education Association as well as the National Education Association.

The purpose of the club is to acquaint members with opportunities in teaching, to cultivate the qualities essential in a good teacher, to study the lives of great teachers, and to foster the development of student leadership.

The club holds monthly meetings under the direction of Mrs. Kenward. They also sponsor many activities during the year, which include a candy sale and a tea for the teachers and staff of C.H.S.

Future Teachers of America

The purpose of the Future Nurses of America is to spark the interest of those considering a career in nursing. F.N.A. points out the good as well as the bad points of medical careers and provides girls with a good background for nursing.

As its main activity this year, the club sponsored a county wide Health Career Rally. It was the first one ever attempted in this county. The Club also visited St. Anthony's Hospital and Marycrest College in Davenport.

The sponsor is Mrs. Ruth Dahlberg, who is the nurse at C.H.S. She advises the girls on their problems and provides them with pamphlets on careers in nursing and other fields in medicine.

The Science Club, whose goal is to further the understanding and appreciation of science, is sponsored by Mr. Norman Place. In the fall those students interested in becoming members petition for their membership. In this way, only the more serious students, who will actually benefit from the organization, may join. Most of the members come from students taking biology, chemistry, or physics.

Through demonstrations, projects, and informative, interesting study, the members learn to enjoy many aspects in the field of science.

Future Farmers of America

R. Reed, treas.; S. Gustafson, sec.; J. Gibson, rept.; D. Dobbels, pres.; F. Heck, sentinel; J. Gradert, vice-pres.

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The four degrees of membership are Green Hand, Chapter Farmer, State Farmer, and American Farmer. The club exists through the cooperative spirit and a desire on the part of farm boys preparing for farming through vocational agriculture.

Under the guidance of Mr. Wohrley, the F.F.A. members are always engaged in such activities as parliamentary procedure, public speaking, exhibiting at fairs, soil judging, improving conservation, sponsoring a parent-son banquet, and co-sponsoring the Sweetheart Ball.

The Future Homemakers of America at CHS had quite a busy time this year.

This year they were selected as their section 10's Honor Chapter and the best chapter in Public Relations. They were fortunate to have a State Officer, Pat Mariman, a Section Mother, Mrs. L. Peterson, and a Section Officer, Sharon Peterson. Sharon was selected to attend the National Convention in California as Section 10's candidate.

The activities of this organization were many; among them, the annual Sweetheart Ball, Daddy Date Night, Sadie Hawkins Dance, Officer's Training School; and F.H.A. Week with all its activities such as Slave Day, the Mother-Daughter banquet and their Rally.

These girls are planning a skit for F.H.A.

Pep Club

Each year the Pep Club seems to gain more and more members. The main goal of the Pep Club is to create good sportsmanship and enthusiasm at Cambridge High School. Each time there is an away game, students rush to sign up for their seats on the bus. They are at the games to cheer the team to victory, and let the boys know that the school is behind them, win or lose. At all the home games the Pep Club has a special section to sit at so they can yell as a group.

With the direction of the cheerleaders the Pep Club at C.H.S. does a great job of representing the school and its sportsmanship.

The Freshman-Sophomore cheerleaders were: Linda Wahlheim, Debbie Johnson, Doris Wahlheim, and Ann Naslund. These girls added their perky smiles to all of the football and basketball games.

The Varsity cheerleading squad was composed of Sharon Leander, Pat Mariman, Sylvia Leander, Carol Telleen, and Sharon Peterson.

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Fitzpatrick, gives girls an opportunity to participate in athletics outside of their gym classes. In the fall, the girls participate in such after school activities as; archery, hockey, volleyball, or badminton. Bowling leagues are held two nights a week. During the winter, basketball games are held between gym classes and the four grade levels. In the spring, to help round out the years' activities, the girls enjoy softball. The GAA also sponsors a sock hop and other fund raising activities.

The Honorary organization for athletes at Cambridge High School is the Varsity Club. To be eligible for membership, the boys must earn points in track, play one-half of all quarters in either football or basketball. This club, sponsored by Mr. Truckenbrod, Mr. Arcand, and Mr. Devinney, promotes good sportsmanship among players and builds incentive for outstanding performance in school sports. One of the big highlights of the year is the Varsity-Faculty basketball game. The Varsity Club also undertakes many other money making projects, including the sale of schedule pens. This year money made from these activities was used to buy a movie camera. The club also helps at the Viking Carnival by sponsoring the Smear-A-Viking Booth.

ACTIVITIES

The 1966-67 school year was a busy one for the students of CHS. Many activities, among them the annual Homecoming game and dance, the Viking Carnival, Christmas dance, Sweetheart Ball, Fresh-Soph Hop, Junior-Senior Prom and the various sports activities. Not to be forgotten are the leisure time activities; among them the many hours spent in town at "Swans".

Homecoming

The festivities for the 1966 Homecoming began with the traditional bonfire, pep session, and snake dance through the business district. On Friday evening, the Fresh-Soph game ended in a tie with Orion. The varsity team was ready to seek revenge against Orion for its last year's defeat, but in the pouring rain, Cambridge was defeated 14 to 0. Only a few loyal fans and the cheerleaders braved the weather to support their team to the end. Band members, already disappointed because their new uniforms failed to arrive, were unable to perform their drill show during half-time. Thus, the weather limited the Friday night activities considerably.

This year each class entered a float in the annual Homecoming parade. Many hours of work went into creating the theme of each float, assembling it, and trying to stay within the twenty dollar budget. On Saturday morning, as the floats lined up for the parade, the wind ripped the once perfectly assembled floats and left many bare spots. Despite this, the judges announced that the junior float "Cambridge Comes Through" was the winner of the class division. The competition ended with the seniors placing second, the sophomores third, and the freshman last. All agreed that their work, which added a personal touch to was well worth the effort.

On Saturday night, the Homecoming Dance climaxed the three day festivities. As the alumni returned to their alma mater, they found the gym transformed into an autumn scene appropriately decorated in brown, orange, and yellow. The program started as Beth Munson, Student Council president, welcomed back the past graduates of C. H. S. Then, Coach Truckenbrod and the senior members of the football squad were introduced. The long-awaited crowning of Queen Sharon Leander and King Ron Francks completed the program. The royalty and their attendants then led the Grand March with the alumni and students joining in. Dancing to the music of the Carroll Baker Orchestra concluded the 1966 Homecoming, a memorable one for all.

Last year's royalty Tom Reed and Carol Telleen crown freshmen Greg Johnson and Doris Walheim king and queen of the 1966 Carnival.

As carnival time approached again, Cambridge was plagued by money hungry students. Suppers, workdays, and even dances were held by the classes that their candidates might be crowned king and queen of the 1966 Viking Carnival. After many weeks of preparation, the results were witnessed on November 12 at the carnival. While awaiting the program and the crowning, the crowd enjoyed displays and games set up by various school organizations. Next the C.H.S. version of the Jackie Gleason Show and the Miss America Pageant was presented. The climax of the evening was the crowning of the freshmen candidates Doris Walheim and Greg Johnson, as king and queen of the 1966 Carnival. They were attended by Jane Sturdevant and Roger Fike, sophomores; Sharon Peterson and Dan Hulsander; juniors; and Pam Galle and Jim Hancock, seniors. The coronation drew to a close a highly pleasurable and profitable carnival.

Christmas Dance 1966

Gordy Johnson and date discuss the evening's activities.

Christmas Dance

On December 16, 1966, the Christmas season was officially recognized at C.H.S. by the annual Christmas dance, sponsored by the National Honor Society. For the first time in many years, the gymnasium was colorfully decorated, creating a winter wonderland. Couples danced to music furnished by the Sonics. The Christmas dance ushered in the Christmas season successfully, leaving many pleasant memories of an enjoyable evening.

Sweetheart Ball Royalty

With February came Valentine's Day and another dance. On February 11, the annual Sweetheart Ball was held. This dance is sponsored by the FHA-FFA. This year the theme was "Wine and Roses". Couples danced to Low Stender and his band. The highlight of the evening came as Theresa DeMay and Ron Reed were crowned Sweetheart and Heartthrob. They were attended by Doug Dahlberg and Joyce Hunter, and Craig Palmer and Sharon Peterson.

Junior Class Play

Under the direction of Mr. Bredthauer and student directors Steve Hultgren and Marlene McLane, the juniors worked hard to present The Skeleton Walks. On April 7 as the curtains parted and nerves forgotten, the audience became engrossed in the mystery comedy.

Elaine Blair, her lawyer-fiance, and her mother came to a lonely old house which Elaine had inherited from her uncle. To their surprise, they found the house in the possession of a suave and mysterious physician Dr. Gersig, his sinister housekeeper, and her deaf-mute son. The old house was worthless, but both Elaine and Dr. Gersig knew that a large sum of money was hidden somewhere on the premises. The Blair family, forced to stay overnight, noticed several strange things, such as a disappearing people and walking skeletons.

After a surprising conclusion the audience left feeling that they had spent a pleasurable evening while watching "The Skeleton Walks."

Spring Concert

"La Musique" the 1967 Spring Concert.

On Sunday, May 14, the music department presented the results of a year's work at the annual Spring Concert.

Under the direction of Charles Burrus, the program opened with the band's presentation of PENTLAND HILLS. Dressed in their uniforms, band members displayed their talents by presenting a variety of numbers, such as, MANCINI, CAMELOT, and DRY BONES.

The second half of the program, under the direction of Mary Ann Sheean, began with RIDE THE CHARIOT, sung by the girls' octet. This was followed by vocal selections by the girls' chorus, the barbershop quartet, and the mens' ensemble. The concert came to a close as the mixed chorus presented its contest numbers and last, but not least, THE OX DRIVERS.

As a new attraction this year, an art show and a tea were held in the cafeteria following the concert.

The art department, headed by Catherine Koehne, displayed examples of plaster carving, oil painting, lettering, and stenciling to complete "An Evening of Culture."

The chorus puts out its full effort as Miss Sheean directs her last Concert for C.H.S.

The Freshman-Sophomore Hop was held April 28, at 8 o'clock. The theme of the dance, which was sponsored by the sophomore class, was the "Round Up". A blue cowboy boot was on each of the tables. At the front of the gym, a corral made of hedge posts and straw was spotlighted by red, yellow, green, and blue lights. Couples danced to records. The program, in which the sophomores participated, was staged in a barroom scene.

The highlight of the evening came as Dick Lindburg and Ann Naslund were crowned prince and princess by last year's royalty, Brad Munson and Debbie Johnson. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

Junior-Senior Prom

Steve Leander and Janifer Grant reigned over the 1966-1967 Junior-Senior Prom.

On the evening of May 6 the Junior-Senior Prom began with the prom banquet in the cafeteria. Gordon Johnson, toastmaster, introduced the program, featuring the senior class prophecy, read by Bill Lindburg, and vocal solos by Carol Telleen and Tom Reed.

Following the program, prom-goers crossed the drawbridge and entered a "Castle In The Clouds." Inside the castle were a throne and a fountain surrounded by blue sky. Carroll Baker's Orchestra from Davenport provided music for the dancing.

Later in the evening, Steve Leander and Janifer Grant were crowned king and queen by last year's royalty, Dick DeBoever and Cheryl Dahlberg.

After the dance, couples went to the bowling alley to see Ask Any Girl and to bowl. Later, a buffet and dance followed at Valley View.

The Honor's Assembly for the 1966-1967 school year began with the installation of newly elected Student Council officers. Then, Annemarie Troger, our A.F.S. student from Austria, addressed the student body for the last time before returning to Austria.

Various organizations also presented awards to deserving members. Beth Munson was awarded the Karen Wielert Memorial, given to the best English student. Glenn Rogers received the Johnson Math Award. Mrs. Fitzpatrick presented Sharon Leander the G.A.A. Achievement Award. Nancy Doy received the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award. Tim Binno was awarded the All-Conference Manager's Trophy. Mr. Buhlig also announced the good citizenship awards, and recognized Beth Munson as valedictorian and Pat Mariman as salutatorian.

Graduation 1967

The long awaited for day, June 2, 1967, finally arrived for the seniors. However, as the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" were heard once again in the CHS gymnasium, the members of the class of '67 knew this would be their last assemblage together.

A crowd of parents, relatives, and friends were here for this occasion. We all listened intently to the speeches of Bethany Munson, our valedictorian; Patricia Mariman, the salutatorian; Virginia Lindquist, the class representative; Annemarie Troger, our AFS student from Austria, Following presentation of the class by Mr. Wayne Buhlig, diplomas were presented to the seniors by Mr. Jack Sherrard.

As the graduation exercises came to a close, the members of the class of 1967 began to realize that perhaps it is true that "Today's Dreams are Tomorrow's Realities."

What's up doc?

As the last few pages of the 1967 VIKING are finished and shipped to Hannibal, Missouri, a feeling of accomplishment is experienced by the entire staff. This book would never have been possible without the hard work and cooperation of everyone involved. Thanks to everybody, who made the 1967 VIKING a reality, but special thanks to:

MISS CATHERINE KOEHNE, ADVISOR--

She stayed on the scene and offered suggestions in organizing layouts, copy, etc.

MR. EUGENE GREY--

He did much "in a pinch" development of pictures for the VIKING.

MR. M. L. GARDNER--

Our American Yearbook representative, he had to be quite patient with us.

GINNY LINDQUIST--

Our copy editor who was always there when we needed her.

JIM CARLSON AND GARY STAHL--

Our photographer editor and assistant who spent many long hours in and out of the darkroom.

Their assistants, Martin Sherrard, Larry Stahl, and Bill Lindburg were "held in reserve."

JOHN SHERRARD--

Our Business Manager; he was kept busy; especially at Carnival time.

TERRY EFAW, BARB PALMER, ROSEMARY BINNO, AND MARY ANDERSON--

These girls were our copy writers and typists. They were kept busy with writing and rewriting-- typing and retyping.

MR. SMITH AND MR. BUHLIG--

Our Superintendent and Principal who helped us a great deal.

ENTIRE SCHOOL--

For their overall cooperation and confidence.

My sincere hope, as editor, is that this year's VIKING ANNUAL is what you, the students, wanted.
